TWO CANNERIES STILL RUNNING

Lagoon Bay and Lockeport on Islands Packing Fall Brands —Watun River and Somerville Closed

The Lagoon Bay and Lockeport canneries on Moresby Island are still packing chums and other fall brand of salmon and will continue for a few weeks yet.

The Watun River cannery and the Somerville Cannery Co.'s floating plant Laura Whalen are closed, the latter having been taken south for the winter.

A good deal of the salmon from the Island canneries has already found its way to Prince Rupert for transshipment south. The Prince John has been bringing heavy cargoes of it on its last few trips.

BANK MANAGER WEDS TEACHER

Miss Gladys Macdonald Became Bride of Oliver H. Wall at Telkwa This Morning

(Special to Daily News)

TELKWA, Sept. 8—A quiet but interesting wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents here at 4 o'clock this morning when Miss Gladys MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald of Telkwa, was united in marriage to Oliver H. Wall, son of W. H. Wall of Vancouver and the late Mrs. Wall. Rev. Mortimer W. Lees of Smithers performed the ceremony and there were present only relatives and immediate friends of the contracting couple.

The bride, who was charmingly gowned in ivory crepe de chine with the conventional veil and orange blossoms, carried a bouquet of Iphelia roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Perle MacDonald who was pretty in blue crepe de chine with hat to match. The groom was supported by A. A. Easson of Prince Rupert.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served and the couple boarded the early morning train for Prince Rupert en route to San Diego on their honeymoon trip. They will return to Telkwa in about a month's time to take up their residence.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wall are particularly well known throughout the central interior and will receive the hearty congratulations and best wishes of many friends. The bride, whose home is here, has taught school at Driftwood Creek and Hazelton. The groom has been manager of the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada for several years, having come from Prince Rupert where two sisters, Mrs. Alex. McRae and Mrs. G. A. Hunter, reside.
