Public Library and Reading Room
Edmonton and Saskatoon are making beginnings in the way of public libraries: the former in rented quarters in a downtown office building, and the latter in the basement of the new I. O. O. F. Temple.

Signs of the Times.
The Archbishop of Canterbury announces that the Anglicans have chosen a committee of twenty men to represent that denomination in the proposed world conference on "Church Unity." At least twenty denominations will take part.

The Methodists and Presbyterians of Peachland, B. C., united into one congregation, with one minister. The same thing is being done all over the west and in Ontario. Times are changing.

Prosperous and Generous.
A few months ago the Presbyterians of Regina decided to build a large residential school for boys, to cost a million dollars. Almost immediately ten men offered donations of $50,000 each, and nine others of $25,000 each. Prosperity and generosity go hand in hand in Western Canada.

Broad Minded.
Rev. John McNeill, who lately came to Toronto, began his work with some plain talking. Among other things, he said: "Try to believe that the world stretches a long way beyond your own potato patch. Listen to the whirr of the reaper in your neighbor's field."

U. S. TENDENCIES ARE DANGEROUS
President Taft Believes People Are Being Led Astray from Path of Wisdom by Agitation

Washington, Feb. 14.—President Taft said in an address here tonight at the annual banquet of the University Club that the American people would return from the dangerous tendencies in government which they have been encouraging, and that the present day agitation of the Progressives would not ultimately be harmful.

"The American people, great as they are," he said "have much to learn, and if this comes to them with some punishment attached, the lesson will be longer remembered. I have spoken in no spirit of pessimism or hopelessness in attempting to point out what I regard as dangerous tendencies, but if the people are led astray from the path of wisdom, they will more permanently remain in it after they come back. I am not speaking of party or my personal experiences. What I refer to is the departure from the principles of sound Democratic government."

He spoke in a humorous manner of his coming duties as professor of law at Yale, saying that he was going to try to show the seniors there that they had something yet to learn, but that he approached his task with humility.

With ringing cheers, the President was greeted by the 600 college men present, after Mr. John Temple Graves, toastmaster, had introduced him as a President who would be "cordially loved while he lived, and graciously remembered after he was gone."

BENNY HENDERSON SOLD TO TOLEDO
Portland, Feb. 13.—Manager McCredie, of the Portland Beavers, announces that he has sold Benny Henderson, the pitcher, to the Toledo club of the American Association. The price was not made public. Benny pitched only five games last year for the Beavers, losing all of them. He was then suspended for violating an anti-liquor clause in his contract, but McCredie refused to release him to any other club.
