LABOR BANQUET GREAT SUCCESS

Many Interesting Addresses were Given at Big Event Saturday Night

PRESENTATION MADE

Principles of Organized Labor Discussed by T. J. Shenton, Mine Inspector

The third annual banquet of the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council was held in the St. Regis Cafe on Saturday evening. The attendance was large and much enthusiasm was displayed. There was an excellent program of music and addresses.

The gathering was presided over by President S. D. Macdonald, who, in a brief opening address, said the banquet was primarily for the purpose of bringing the workers together. He outlined the accomplishments of the local council during the year.

Mayor Newton read a humorous poem, concluding with a fitting reference to the principles of organized labor.

The chief address of the evening was by T. J. Shenton, inspector of mines and a former president of the Nanaimo Trades & Labor Council. He spoke in an interesting manner on the fundamental principles of organized labor. His address was greatly appreciated.

Archdeacon G. A. Rix and Principal J. C. Brady were also speakers, the former describing his travels through the district during the past year and punctuating his remarks with many humorous reference and the latter along educational lines.

Aldermen Spoke

Labor members of the city council—Ald. Brown, Ald. McKechnie and Ald. Larsen—spoke on municipal administration during the year, the first two briefly but Ald. Larsen at greater length. Ald. Casey was not present.

Brief addresses were also given by J. J. Gillis, Carpenters' Union; J. H. Meagher, Halibut Fishermen's Union; Harold J. Smith, Engineers' Union; T. Black, Electrical Workers' Union; C. J. Tucker, Car Workers' Union; A. Hudema, Sheet Metal Workers' Union; Frank Derry, secretary of Trades & Labor Council, and F. Cummings, of Vancouver, a director of the Vancouver Exhibition Board.

During the banquet, there were selections by Prof. Pryce's Orchestra consisting of Prof. H. Aubrey Pryce, Mrs. Gawthorne and Kenny Rood. The program was interspersed with many fine instrumental and vocal numbers. There were songs by E. Sabourin, Jack McLean, Mr. Fortune, T. Wilson, Jas. Black, H. Astoria, a harmonic solo by T. Miller and a selection by the Westholme orchestra.

Presentation Made

One of the most pleasant features of the evening's proceedings was the presentation by Vice-President James Black to President S. D. Macdonald of a beautiful set of five pipes in case as a recognition of the latter's many years of efficient service as president of the council. Mr. Macdonald, who was taken altogether by surprise, nevertheless made a suitable reply.

The Way Out

They had just sealed their engagement with a kiss.

"And, David dear, I am a graduate in home economics," she whispered.

"Well, never mind that," he returned generously. "I suppose we can board."

PARTY ON SATURDAY IMMENSELY ENJOYED

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McDonald Entertained Friends in Elks' Hall

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McDonald, Fifth Ave. East, delightfully entertained some fifty of their friends in the Elks' Home on Saturday night. The evening was gaily spent in dancing, in which moonlight waltzes and serpentine dances were much enjoyed, to snappy music furnished by Arthur's orchestra, consisting of Mrs. R. P. Ponder, piano; D. Eastman, saxaphone; and R. Arthur Jr., traps and violin.

Delicious refreshments were served at 11 o'clock under the supervision of Mrs. McDonald, assisted by Mrs. Harold Ponder, Mrs. James Parsons and Mrs. James Morrison, when novelty features were introduced, causing much merriment.

Each plate carried a raffle number for a box of stationery which was won by Mrs. R. P. Ponder with ticket No. 20.

The singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," followed by "God Save the King" brought a very happy evening to a close at midnight.

PEDESTRIANS MUST BEWARE

Have no Prior Rights on Highway Alberta Appeal Court Decides

EDMONTON, Dec. 14.—"Some pedestrians seem to think that they have a superior right to vehicles on any part of the highway. They certainly have on the portion especially set aside for them, but they as certainly have not on the portion especially provided for vehicular traffic though for the purpose of properly crossing such portion they have an equal right with that of vehicles."

In these words Chief Justice Harvey of the appellate division determines the rights of a pedestrian on a highway. He has handed down written judgment in the appeal of Turpie vs. Oliver, allowing the appeal of Arthur Oliver, the driver of an automobile against an award to Jas. and Mrs. Turpie for injuries sustained by the latter on being knocked down by Oliver's automobile. Mr. Justice Hyndman concurred in the chief justice's judgment and Mr. Justice Beck agreed with the result. On the other hand Mr. Justices Stuart and Clarke would have dismissed the appeal.

She Was Troubled With Chronic Constipation

Once your bowels become constipated you are in for a lot of trouble, as constipation is one of the most prolific sources of disease that the human race is addicted to, therefore a free motion of the bowels every day should be the aim of everyone who aspires to perfect health.

Mrs. O. W. Lawrence, Cloverdale East, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with chronic constipation, and became so bad I was almost afraid to eat anything.

One day I saw your advertisement of

so I got three vials, and after taking them I have never been troubled since with constipation."

BASKETBALL GAMES PLAYED

Girls and Junior Boys Both had Hoop Contests Saturday Afternoon

Two very interesting basketball games were played in the Exhibition Hall on Saturday afternoon when two girls teams, the Cyclones and the Collegiates played a very close game and the junior boys' teams, the Go-getters and the Stars, also put up a pretty good exhibition. Alex. Mitchell refereed in each case.

Junior Boys

In the junior boys game the Stars led in the first half by 7 to 2 and seemed to be having it all their own way. After the interval the Go-getters bucked up a lot and crept up on their opponents but not enough to overtake their earlier losses with the result that the Stars won by 13 to 10. For the winners Harold Macdonald scored 9, Jimmie Bryant 2 and Bill Collison 2, while for the losers Eddie Smith put in 6 and Gorden Vierick and Joe Scott two each. The teams were:

Go-getters—Eddie Smith, Joe Scott, Gordon Vierick, Dan Mackenzie, Buster Hill and Boddie Stalker.

Stars: Bill Murray, Harold Macdonald, Jimmie Bryant, Bill Collison, and Alan Cross.

Girls' Game

The girls' game was so close that on two occasions during the game the sides were tied. Margaret Kergin scored twelve for the Cyclones and Helen Nucich 1. For the Collegiates Phyllis Harvey made 12, Vera Smith 2, and Virginia Reil 1. The teams were:

Cyclones—Rhoda Lamb, Margaret Kergin, Christine Nucich, Helen Nucich, Victoria Krikovsky and Margaret Gilchrist.

Collegiates.—Verna Smith, Ada Menzicor, Phyllis Harvey, Virginia Reil, Winnie Thomson and Evelyn Roberge.

Physical Culture

An exhibition of basketball and physical culture is to be given at the Exhibition Hall Tuesday evening for the purpose of raising funds for the expenses of the hall for the basketball games.
