ST. ANDREW'S ANNUAL BALL

Affair in Auditorium Last Night Was Outstanding Success— 250 Persons Attended

Quite as enjoyable and picturesque as any event of its kind held in past years was the annual St. Andrew's ball which took place last evening in the Auditorium. There were some 250 couples in attendance, quite filling the large hall, and dancing was enjoyed to the full between the hours of 9 and 3. The guests as they entered were each presented with a sprig of heather. The hall was adorned with Scottish emblems and flags, there were many beautiful gowns and a smattering of Highland uniforms.

Music was furnished by Arthur's Orchestra and Piper Alex Macdonald, in full Highland regalia, played for the schottisches. There were quadrilles in both the first and second halves, the large crowd taking part in these with enthusiasm. In the second half there was a "Rory O'More" dance by special request. During the intermission, there was a cornet solo by Dick Perks of Winnipeg.

The refreshments served to several sittings at midnight were worthy of special mention. Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary had charge of this end.

Howard Steen was master of ceremonies; Marcus Andrews and James Andrews presided at the door and the committee in charge consisted of Howard Steen, Jas Simpson, Ben Dalgarno, James Irvine, J. Watson, M. Andrews, Mrs. Dalgarno and Mrs. Christison.

Dolores only knows The Spaniard as a fearless bull-fighter, who gets what he goes after. He does not tell her that he belongs to one of the oldest and wealthiest famileis of the Spanish nobility, until after they are married.

She Could Never Do The Things Other Girls Did

Miss I. J. Ross, Scollard, Alta., writes:—"I am only twenty years old, but have suffered from heart palpitation and nerve trouble for several years.

I could never do the things other girls did, that is, in the line of sports, skating, etc., and could never depend on myself at work.

About six months ago I began taking

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

and am just twice the girl I was, and can enjoy everything in general life so much more. I am very grateful for what your Pills have done for me."

Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SPORT CHAT

Rowing shells used by the University of Washington at Seattle have been ordered by two foreign rowing clubs and the Universities of Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Princeton. George Pocock is the university shell builder at Seattle with a school on the school campus. His shells were used when the University of Washington became intercollegiate rowing champion in 1923 and 1924. The first four-oared shell for foreign waters went to the Buenos Aires club and the Havana Rowing Club ordered a four-oared boat.

Damages in the sum of $100 and costs has been awarded the Ottawa Hockey Association from the Ottawa Citizen as a result of an editorial suggesting corruption published in that paper last March. The Association asked for $45,000 damages and Judge Rose, while finding the article libellous, saw no evidence of malice or intent to injure the plaintiffs although the article, he declared, was unfortunately worded. Frank Ahern, president of the Ottawa Hockey Association, took the finding of the court as a "vindication of hockey" while the Citizen took it cheerfully stating that it did not mean all that was construed out of the editorial.
