FRENCH CONSERVATIVES PLAN NEW LEADER WHO MAY REPLACE MEIGHEN

EDMONTON, Aug. 29.—A special despatch to the Journal says: The latest contribution to political discussion is the announcement in the French press of Montreal of a strong movement to induce Hon. E. L. Patenaude to re-enter politics and take the direction of an independent Conservative party in Quebec.

The purpose as outlined would be to renounce the leadership of Mr. Meighen and to appeal to the province on a protectionist policy. Incidentally such lieutenants as Messrs. Monty, Belley and Fauteaux would be supplanted. It is stated that a very large delegation is shortly to wait upon Mr. Patenaude and urge him to accept leadership of the new movement, which he is expected to do.

Political speculation continues as to the date of the election, but as to the probability that parliament is to be dissolved little doubt is displayed. Likewise the election is looked for in October, but no date has been particularly discussed. It would depend upon the time required by the election bureau to get ready. The prime minister in his speech on Sept. 5 is expected to foreshadow dissolution, but not to announce any date for an election.

Mrs. Robert McCarthy is a patient in the Prince Rupert General Hospital recovering from an operation following an injury to her foot.

cently acquired "stud" over the jumps in readiness for Fair Week.

Tugboat P.R.T., Capt. Harris Kerr, returned from Georgetown on Wednesday morning with a scow load of lumber for the Big Bay Co.'s yard.

A new 6 h.p. Palmer engine arrived this week consigned to Akerberg-Thomson for installation in Capt. Ed. Paulson's trolling boat. Ed. arrived in port on Wednesday afternoon from North Island and Hippo where he has been fishing all season, and the installation of the new engine will be made immediately. When the engine has been installed Cap is going down to the Barnard Cove floating cannery to add to his stake for the winter.

Bob Frizzell is installing a 200 h.p. Emmerson engine in the speed boat Miss Rupert in readiness for any speed trials that may crop up during Fair Week.

While in port this week the Canadian schooner Rose Spit, Capt. Axel Olson, had repair work done on her gurdy.

Molars and "Monks"

"Doc." Clapperton came off the dental dry dock on Thursday and is now sporting a wonderful new set of molars. Doc, it is said, will inaugurate a new fashion in face trimmings and intends to have half his moustache shaved off to give the onlookers a better view of his lunch finders.

By the way, did you hear the story about Doc and the Buller's circus animals. When the C.P.R. boat Otter arrived, disguised as a miniature ark having aboard ponies, mules, goats, dogs, bears and monkeys, Mr. Buller was fearful lest the animals caught cold and asked Doc if he could put them inside the government shed until morning. Of course good hearted Doc agreed but soon wished he hadn't. Just as he got to bed the animals seemed to be trying to start a war and sleep was out of the question. Quickly donning some clothes Doc marched downstairs and into the shed there to find that one of the monkeys had managed to grab the tail of a dog in the cage next door, which to show its resentment had in turn taken a firm mouthful of brother dog. After several unsuccessful attempts to loosen the monkey's hold of the dog's tail Doc had a brain wave. Getting on his hands and knees he pulled several wry faces at the monk, and that did the trick. The monk quickly let go of the dog's tail and slunk back into the corner of his cage blinking as much as to say "I'll promise to be good if you'll quit the funny faces."

Steve Ridley of Kitkatla was forced to put into port this week aboard his power boat Kay, having stripped his camshaft and crankshaft gear. This trouble was fixed at the Akerberg-Thomson shops and Steve left on Tuesday to continue his seining operations for the Sommerville cannery.

Capt. Julius Johnson, owner and skipper of the power boat Lily, arrived in port on Tuesday from Port Essington to have a Manzell automatic oil feeder installed. Cap is fishing on the Skeena river.

Capt. Walter Green of Port Simpson was an arrival in port this week to have new piston rings and a new cross head pin fixed on his engine.

Power boat Prospect Park, tender to the Wallace Fisheries, was in port this week for minor repair work.

Gy Roberts of Port Simpson is having a new 6 h.p. Vivian engine installed in his trolling boat Condon which is nearing completion on the Cow Bay Creek ways. The new craft is 26 ft. long, 7 ft. 6 in. beam and has a draft of 3 ft. 6 ins.

Foxes Doing Well

Andy Ness, who with his brothers is running a blue fox farm on Ness Island, Kitkatla Passage, arrived in port on Thursday after a three months' visit to the fur farm. Andy states that this year the farm has been enriched by the arrival of a number of young foxes, two separate litters of eleven pups being included, which is considered very good returns among fox farmers. The climate seems to be admirably adapted for fox raising, and Andy is very satisfied with the manner in which things are going.

INCREASE FINES TO AUTOMOBILE SPEEDERS

VICTORIA, Aug. 29. — "I am going to increase all fines against those persons who are convicted of driving automobiles to the common danger," said Magistrate Gerge Jay, following the conviction of two drivers in the Provincial Police Court. "Fast driving along the highways, which are often enough crowded with cars, is likely to lead to serious accidents and so for the sake of the general public the offenders will be prosecuted and dealt with more severely unless speeding stops."

A compelling, tensely dramatic story of the life of to-day. Jazz parties on Christmas Eve — swaying, half-drunken couples slithering around on the polished floor while the children watched wide-eyed from the stairs.
