FACTS ABOUT LONDON GIVEN

Statistical Absract Issued by L. C. C. Contains Curious Information Concerning Empire's Capital

LONDON, Jan. 4.—The London County Council has issued a statistical abstract full of curious information concerning the city.

One is that there are 340,000 more unmarried women than there are men without wives. There are nearly a third as many widows as single women, a fact due to the war, while curiously enough there are 13,000 more married women than husbands.

There are not enough men to go around. The bachelors number 539,700 and the widowers 72,459, while there are 725,834 single women and 233,645 widows. The number of husbands is 865,300, while the number of married women is 877,298.

Food Consumption

London consumed last year 480,520 tons of meat, poultry and provisions. Billingsgate market sold 184,080 tons of fish.

Institutional poor relief was given to 69,743 persons during the year.

The number of Scots in London is dwindling. While in 1900 there were 56,605, last year there were only 49,881.

The resident population of the "city," the nucleus of the business centre, has dropped from 128,128 in 1881 to 13,700, but the day population increased from 261,061 to 437,721.

There were 7,111 fire alarms last year, 2,292 false.

There are 8,058 saloons in the city.

The taxable valuation of the metropolis is more than £500,000,000.

There were 19,000 fewer marriages last year than in 1918.

A Few Doses of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup May Stop That Cough

Mr. Frank D. Comeau, West Bathurst, N.B., writes:—"I had a very bad cold and cough that settled on my lungs, and I thought that I would never get rid of it.

One day a friend spoke to me about your wonderful remedy, so I sent and got a bottle of it, and after the first dose I took I got relief, and by the time I had finished the bottle I was completely relieved of all my trouble."

DOCTORS SAID HER DAYS WERE NUMBERED

New Brunswick Woman Took Western Cure and is Now Hale and Hearty

MONTERAL, Que., Jan. 4. — (By Canadian Press) — Writing of Christmas traffic a local paper said:—"Mrs. Mundle, with her daughter and her grandson, age 10 months, joined the Christmas excursion train at Moose Jaw. Ten years ago Mrs. Mundle lived in Richibucto, N.B., and doctors told her that her days were numbered. Today she is a hale and hearty woman who has born the fatigue of an 1,800 mile railway journey without discomfort. The medicine that worked the wonder was the West. The Mundles with their daughter than a young girl of eleven, bought a 320 acre half section in the Assiniboia district, and in the last ten years have worked it themselves. They made good from the start. Some years were better than others, of course, but this year was the best of any with a bumper crop of Marquis wheat that ran forty bushels to the acre. They will be taken up by Garnet wheat next or the following year. Meanwhile 40 bushels to the acre on a 320 acre farm works out to around 13,000 bushels, which with wheat at $1.50 a bushel, means good money. Now Mrs. Mundle is headed for the East again to show New Brunswickers what the West can do for a woman.

PRINCE RUPERT IS MAKING PROGRESS

Prosperity of Central and Northern B.C. Benefits Port says H. F. Pullen

The northern part of the province is seeing a most satisfactory advancement and the coming year promises increased prosperity, according to Mr. H. F. Pullen in an interview given the Vancouver Province.

The new government elevator located at Prince Rupert is not functioning as yet, but is expected to be receiving prairie wheat in a short time. The machinery was tested out and the plant works smoothly.

The city of Prince Rupert is steadily elxpanding. As the natural distribution point for the North, progress in any portion of the north has its reflection in Prince Rupert business conditions and the mining activity particularly during the past year has benefitted Prince Rupert materially.

ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED

Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association Recorded in Gazette

The current issue of the British Columbia Gazette carries the announcement of the incorporation of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association. The company is the outcome of a recent meeting of halibut fishermen of the city at which it was decided to form such an organization for the co-operative handling of fish. The incorporation provides for the sale of shares in demominations of $1 each. The registered office of the Association is in Prince Rupert.

Some of the objects of the Association, as recorded in the Gazette, are:

To acquire, own, operate, carry on, and manage in all its branches and departments, wholesale and retail, the following business: fishing, fish-buying, canneries, fish packers and curers, importers, exporters, cold storage, manufacturers, merchants, agents, warehouse-keepers, wharfingers, ship owners, and carriers:

To build, acquire, own, operate, carry on, manage, and dispose of the following: factories, canneries, stores, warehouses, wharves, dwellings, boats, scows, and all other properties and rights suitable for the Association's business:

To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, hold, develop and improve, enjoy, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any property, real or personal, or any rights or privileges capable of being held or dealt with by an association incorporated under the "Co-operative Association Act" of British Columbia:

To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Association is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property or rights suitable for the purposes of this Association.

POLITICAL LEADER TO BE WED IN EAST

Wedding Bells for R. H. Pooley to Ring at Providence, Rhode Island

VICTORIA, Jan. 4.—Politicians of all parties in British Columbia are straining their ears to catch the chime of wedding bells ringing from Providence, Rhode Island, where R. H. Pooley, Opposition Leader in the Provincial Legislature, is to be married in a few days.

Mr. Pooley left quietly for the East on Sunday week having cancelled his plans to spend Christmas there following the delay in the Legislature's adjournment.

Mr. Pooley's bride-elect is Miss Mary Louise Tillinghast, Providence heiress, whom he met here last summer while she was on a visit to the coast. The date of the wedding has not been announced as it was changed when Mr. Pooley altered his plans for his visit to Providence. It is understood however, that it will take place immediately after he reaches the American city and that the honeymoon couple will return to reside here within a month. Members of the Legislature of all parties are planning to flood the popular Conservative leader with telegrams of congratulation when news of the wedding is received.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Ushering in of New Year Celebrated at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker

One of the most pleasant New Year affairs in the city was a party which took place at 642 Eighth Avenue East, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker. The party was in the nature of a double event celebrating the birth of the New Year and the birthday of Mr. Walker. Mrs. Walker had provided dinner with true Scottish New Year hospitality. After full justice had been done to all the good things provided, the floor was cleared and a very pleasant evening spent in dancing with songs and recitations interspersed. Shortly after midnight the party broke up, everyone wishing Mr. and Mrs. Walker long life and happiness.

Among the many friends present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Collier, Mrs. and Miss Evelyn Wilson, Jack and George Wilson and Mr. Way.

SILVER WEDDING OF MR. AND MRS. HERBERT HAMPTON CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hampton celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Saturday evening at their home on Eighth Avenue West with a card party and supper when they received the congratulations of many friends, also a number of beautiful pieces of silverware, prominent among which was a cabinet of 52 pieces of Adam Pattern community silver.

The guests of the evening included Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Mitchell (Anyox), Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macey, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKinley, George Sutherland, William Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ciccone and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ledlie.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton have resided in the city for the past fifteen years and are deservedly popular amid a wide circle of friends.
