Candlelight enhances Annunciation wedding

Flickering candlelight cast a lovely glow on the bouquets of red gladioli and white carnations which graced the altar of the Annunciation church for the marriage of Lina Marie Barazzuol and John Barazzulo, solemnized on September 19.

Rev. James Tracey officiated the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. carnations. Quirino Barazzulo of Vancouver. groom's niece as flower girl, Walking up the aisle on the carried a basket of white carnaarm of Carl Erickson, the bride tions, a charming complement to was radiant in an Italian crea- her First Communion frock of tion of lace and silk tulle. Fash- white brocaded taffeta. wioned in ankle-length, the bouf- Groomsmen were Giordano fant skirt was styled with over- Guisti and Michael Moshenko walays of pleated silk tulle which and ushers were Reno Fabris fell from a fitted lace bodice and Peter Moroz. outlined with a rounded neck- Soloist Mrs. Rudolf Grzesik line and long sleeves tapered to was accompanied by organist C.

lily-points. by a crown of matching white carried a bouquet of white stephgowns. For contrast their bou- flanked by white tapers.

liny lots begin seasor tomorrow

Civic Centre will once again be toast to the bride and assisting filled with Tiny Tots as the big- with the smorgasbord supper gest class in the Civic Centre were Mrs. Karasosky, Miss Verna program gets underway- under Moroz, Mrs. Stephen Mintenko, the direction of Mrs. F. R. Pea- Mrs. Clifford Walker, Miss Sha-1

The hour-long program, from Weick, Mrs. J. H. Thornber and 2:30 to 3:30 for children from Miss Betty Callbreath. 3 to 6, teaches children games, Newlyweds have taken up resdrill, marching, gymnastics and idence in the Waldron Apartsinging. Story telling is also a ments. popular feature of the class.

Mothers of children taking teachers. Encouraging mothers to assist in this class Mrs. Peagam said. "we have two more, openings for teachers, if any and their two daughters, Robin and Allison, leave tomorrow by car for Langley, B.C., where they will take up permanent resi-

PERSONALS

PRINCE RUPERT OPTICAL LTD. 303 3rd Ave. W. Phone 5548

at the 6:30 p.m. ceremony for quets were composed of pink Barazzuol of Italy and the son of Petite Diana Camerin, the

The Armoury was the scene of Her finger tip veil of import- the reception attended by some ed embroidered tulle was secured 350 guests who were received and her only jewellery was a set under a bridal arch decorated of black diamond earrings. She with autumn flowers and maple Festoons of yellow and blue streamers decorating the hall, In pretty harmony, brides- were draped to the bride's table, maids Miss Dolores Birkeland set under a canopy of white wand Miss Livia Mossini wore pale bells. A four-tiered wedding cake blue full skirted street-length was set on a crocheted cloth and Acting for the bride's mother, Mrs. Michael Karasosky was gowned in pink lace.

Receiving with the bridal party were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Moroz, Mrs. Bruno Camerin, sister of the groom and the groom's

R. A. McLean proposed the ron Rutherford, Mrs. Ralph will address the women of the ner in their cottage. She will speak on the work of the WMS at Home and Abroadi

BINGO

ANNUNCIATION HALL

Thursday, Oct. 1st - 8 p.m. 4--$50 Games 11 Games at $20 and $15

Express Your Opinions

With Ease and Confidence

EVERYBODY WELCOME

TOASTMISTRESSES AND TOASTMASTERS CLUB

FIRST MEETING of Prince Rupert TOASTMISTRESS CLUB will be held at the ELK'S LODGE, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 8 p.m.

FIRST MEETING of "KAIEN" TOASTMASTER'S CLUB will be held in the PRINCE RUPERT HOTEL, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 6 p.m. (Dinnor $1.25)

Prince Ruport TOASTMASTER'S CLUB LUNCH MEETING, PRINCE RUPERT HOTEL, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 12:30 p.m.

(Toastmaster's International)

学科诗

MR. AND MRS. JOHN BARAZZULO -Photo by Nishio-Van Meer Studio.

Francois Lake News

By AGNES H. NEAVE

Daily News Correspondent

Francois Lake—Recent copies of the Daily News plains, south of Francois Lake, and he used to hire wrapped in a tarpaulin, with the Hugh's taxi to take him and his family to town quite horns on top.

ping and they are increasing. Log Cottage. Mr. Patchett and to leave. As they were the only prior to the accident.

tomorrow night at 8 p.m. in | ing in the lake and brought in | years old Jocelyn counts th Miss Smith has held appoint- Columbia every year for 20 ride the ponies. ments with Mission Bands, years for their holidays, and Canadian Girls in Training and have stayed in various districts | Harold Stainton was through Young Women's departments, from far north to Vancouver the district on an inspection > planning on returning here through on his way south in They have a comfortable trailer connection with cruising for the home and small Marie was thrill- Forestry. His home is in Smithed when Mrs. Owen invited her ers. in to investigate eyery drawer and gadget and to watch how the bed was made up for the '| night, This was Peggy and Wallie Grebe's first visit to British Col- . A limited number of memberumbia and they are already Prince Rupert Curling Club, For planning on returning next year for a longer stay. They and the forms contact 5016 or 6124 (eve-Owens became very good friends nings), or any member of the and as they do not live very far executive.

> Donna Hickey and her small 8:00 p.m. daughter Jo Anne are staying Mr. M. L. Foeny, DVA repre-with her husband Jim's parents sentative will be at the Legion Donna also spent some time with appointment. her parents Mr. and Mrs. Mc- Logion Auxiliary meeting rariand in Smithers before com- Thursday, October 1st, 8 p.m.

pelts is low, there is little trap- Quesnel stayed one night in the was killed a few weeks ago when afternoon two his plane, which he was piloting, unexpectedly crashed into the side of a moun-California-Mr. and Mrs. tain. He was on his way from from Van Nuys, and Vancouver to Quesnel with three Grebe friends when it is thought that stayed the plane was iced and it was until Friday morning, and we also very foggy. He had been were very sorry when they had piloting his plane for eight years church in Canada, Toronto, Owens and Hal and me to din-drive over from Houston to spend the weekends here in their sum-First Presbyterian church here | ner in their cottage. | the weekends here in their sumthe church manse. A 1939 a splendid catch of twout. Bill days between visits for she is graduate of the Missionary and Owen told us that his wife and very pally with her cousin, our Deaconess Training school, he had been coming to British Marie, and the two little girls > trip to all places of business in h When he told us that they connection with the Social Serpreserved Francois Lake to any vices tax. His headquarters are other where they have stayed it in the Courthouse in Prince Rumade us very proud and they are pert. A. K. MacRae was also here for two weeks. She and Friday, October 2nd from 2:00 to Jim are now living in Vancouver, 5:00 p.m. Please phone 4141 for

Announcements

O. Eidsvik to write final uniform CA examination

O. I. Eldsvik of 1237 Second Avenue West, is among 39 men who have successfully passed the 1959 final law examination of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of British Columbia, it was released here today,

Due to the results, Mr. Eldsvik is now a successful candidate for the Uniform Final qualifying examination to be hold in mid-October in Vancouver where he is now preparing for the examination. Results of these exams will be released in December,

SEIRSTERECITALLOCTOBER 6

Internationally famed pianist guest artist in third concert

Two great pianists are unanimous in their praise of the artistry of Herman Godes, who will present the third program February 23 in the Prince Rupert Concert Series. Walter Gleseking, with whom tion camps before his liberation the young pianist was a master from dreaded Buchenwald by pupil, wrote: "Herman Godes is United States troops in 1945. Rean accomplished pianist, excep- suming his interrupted concert tionally gifted both musically career, Mr. Godes was soon apand technically . . . exceptional pearing as featured soloist with some of the greatest orchestras.

This opinion was echoed by in Europe, earning enthusiastic Robert Casadesus, who said that critical reviews. Mr. Godes "is one of the most Prince Rupert music-lovers Saturday. While here for twothe opportunity to hear. This hear this great musician, as well parents Mr. and Mrs. Eugene drtist possesses a very fine as concerts by the Claremont Dutton, 625 Taylor Street. technique and musicality of high standing....

spent four years in concentra- Centre.

Quartet, soprano Marilyn Horne,

Born in Latvia, the brilliant and baritone Stephen Kemalyan. virtuoso was captured by the Tickets are available now from 1958 amounted to 1,837,000 tons Germans in World War II, and canvassers or from the Civic of which Ontario accounted for

PERSONALS

Miss Lorna Dutton arrived in the city Monday by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane from Vancouver to preside as maid/ofhonor at the wedding of her sister Miss Jean Dutton to Gary Morison which will take place gifted young planists I have had who appreciate good music can weeks she is the guest of her Canada's production of salt in 1,625,000 tons.

...IT'S ALREADY TIME TO PLAN FOR CHRISTMAS

This year you'll want to select your Greeting Cards from those we have available in our better-than-ever selection of personalized cards

Supplies do become exhausted, so be sure you shop early for the best selection.

> PRINCE RUPERT DAILY NEWS STATIONERY DEPARTMENT Phone 6767