ROTARY CLUB OF KETCHIKAN COMING HERE

Number of Members to Visit Prince Rupert For Joint Meeting on June 24

TO BE HERE TWO DAYS

The Prince Rupert Rotary Club has been notified that members of the Rotary Club of Ketchikan and their ladies will make a visit to the Rotary Club of Prince Rupert this month.

Present arrangements are for the club to leave in a body on the Princess Louise on the morning of Wednesday, June 23, arriving here in the afternoon of the same day. The Prince Rupert club holds its meeting on Thursday, so the party will remain until the Princess Charlotte makes its northbound trip on the morning of Friday, June 26.

A cordial invitation had been extended by the Prince Rupert club for the Ketchikan Rotarians to visit them and the local members expect to extend themselves for the occasion. A large number of Ketchikan men have signified their intention of making the trip with their wives and many more are expected to "sign up" within the next week.

Seizure of Liquor Vessel in Mexican Waters by U.S. May Have International Aspect

SAN DIEGO, June 7.—The capture of an alleged Canadian rum runner off Coronato Island, Mexico, while the vessel was attempting to land a thousand cases of whiskey, ostensibly for smuggling into San Diego, was reported here by the commanding officer of the Mexican patrol steamer Tecate. The vessel was towed to Ensenada where the crew of fifteen were placed in custody and the whiskey confiscated by the United States customs.

Much interest in the case is evinced here as to what action the Canadian government may take regarding the seizure, which took place between British Columbia and Lower California.

INSTALLATION LOCAL PASTOR

Rev. T. D. Rinde Formally Placed in Charge of English Lutheran Congregation

The formal installation to the church of St. Pauls' of Rev. T. D. Rinde took place last evening, Rev. P. E. Baisler officiating. It was a historic event in that he is the first regular pastor of the first English Lutheran Church in the northland. In his charge Mr. Baisler drew attention to this and admonished Mr. Rinde to preach the word as the only power of God unto Salvation and to take heed unto himself that he might grow in experimental knowledge of the truth which he is called upon to teach. Further the speaker said, he should labor patiently and suffer reproach when necessary that the cause of truth might be advanced. Mr. Rinde had recognized in the call of St. Paul's congregation the call from God to an important field. He felt sure that pastor and people would do blessed work for the kingdom.

In his charge to the congregation, the speaker admonished the people to make good their pledge of love and loyal support as set forth in the call to their pastor. The outlook was promising.

In his general remarks, Mr. Baisler said that the outlook was promising. Three points in the northland reported in 1924, Prince Rupert, Prince George and Juneau, and now had promising English Lutheran mission congregations.

An anthem was sung by the choir.

EMINENT CANADIAN DOCTOR MAKING HIS FIRST COAST VISIT

Dr. F. C. Banting Passes Through City Enroute to Alaska—Will Speak at Victoria

Making his first trip to the Pacific Coast, Dr. F. G. Banting of Toronto, noted Canadian medical man and world famous as the discoverer of the insulin treatment for diabetes, arrived in the city on yesterday afternoon's train and sailed this morning aboard the Princess Louise for Alaska. He was accompanied by Mrs. Banting and Miss Gairns of Toronto.

Speaking to a Daily News representative this morning, Dr. Banting stated that this part of his trip was in the nature of a holiday. He said that he had been charmed with British Columbia so far as he had seen it along the Canadian National Railway coming into Prince Rupert and was looking forward to the voyage to Alaska and thence south to Victoria where he is to be a principal speaker at a medical association convention.

GOLF CHAMPION TO VISIT AT JASPER

Given Royal Suite at Hotel as Contrast to Former Visit When Soldier

WINNIPEG, June 7. — George Lyon of Toronto, who has won the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship more times than any other player was a visitor to Winnipeg over the week-end. It was his first trip to this city since 1885, when he was a corporal in the Queen's Own regiment. On that occasion his sleeping quarters were located under the grand piano at the Leland House. Just by way of contrast and to show him that Winnipeg has improved somewhat in the past 41 years, H. Berry, manager of the Fort Garry hotel, tucked him away in the royal suite on this visit.

Mr. Lyon is travelling west to Jasper with A. J. Hills, assistant to the operating vice-president of the Canadian National Railways and also prominent in the golfing world of eastern Canada.

Mr. Hills has been largely responsible for the development of Minaki and Jasper Park Lodge courses, both of which, in the space of two years, have been noted among golf courses on the continent not only for their scenic and playing features but also for the remarkable manner in which they were constructed in district where experts believed it would be impossible to build them.

Mr. Lyons and Mr. Hills are leaving Winnipeg this afternoon for Jasper.

WILKINS BACK FROM ARCTIC

Continuous Fogs In That Region Prevent Exploration Work by Airplane

ENDEAVOR ABANDONED

FAIRBANKS, June 7.—A quartette, headed by Captain George Wilkins, returned here in the monoplane Detroiter from Point Barrow Saturday night.

The Detroiter flew to Point Barrow on May 8 to explore the Arctic waste from that base and the return may be taken to mean the abandonment of the endeavor to explore the Arctic region this year.

Members of the party reported themselves glad to be back at Fairbanks after continual fogs which have shrouded the Arctic since May.
