FISHING BOAT TANK EXPLODES

Fire Department Had Call to Oil Dock This Morning.

DAMAGE TO EUREKA

Matt Nelson, Member of Crew, is Injured on Hands and Face

As the result of a fire which broke out when the gas tanks exploded while taking on oil at the Imperial Oil dock at 10 o'clock this morning, the American schooner Eureka, a four man boat owned by Capt. N. M. Nilson and Crist Foss, of Tacoma, suffered considerable damage to the fore part of the vessel and Matt Nelson, a member of the crew, suffered burns to hands and face, necessitating medical treatment. Nelson and his partner, Andrew Anderson, who were aboard at the time of the explosion were forced to jump overboard and swim for the shore, so rapidly did the flames spread.

Upon the arrival of the fire department the vessel was ablaze from stem to stern and was immediately towed away from the oil dock to prevent the dock being damaged.

It is thought the explosion was caused by the oil passing down the pipes into the tanks becoming electrified by friction and thus igniting the oil.

The boat had 13,000 pounds of halibut aboard, having only just arrived from the fishing banks. The fish has since been transferred to a scow by the Prince Rupert Boathouse salvage corps.

The boat carried some insurance.

"His People"

An absorbing drama of a great-hearted father's love for his sons. A photoplay which throws the spotlight on life in New York's Ghetto. Whilst one son denied his father before a crowd of fashionable people, the other reeled around a prize-ring under heavy blows to earn the money to pay his father's doctor bills. A moving picture so moving in the other sense of the word that it will make you feel like climbing right into the screen and using your fists, then a big laugh comes and you will feel better. A photoplay that is remarkable for fine character work and big heart thrills. Exceptional cast.

Rudolph Schildkraut, George Lewis, Blanche Mehaffey, Arthur Lubin, Bertram Marburgh, Sidney Franklin, Nat Carr, Rosa Rosanova, Virgina Brown Fair, Kate Price and many others.
