Names in the News

of York said Wednesday that af- deputy leader of Australia's opter long thought on the question position Labor party today urgof the use of contraceptives he ed an increase in aid that richer has concluded "it is right to use countries are giving poorer. them as part of the Christian Speaking at the Commonwealth fulfilment of marriage". But he parliamentary conference here,

"I don't counsel indiscriminate spent $70,000,000,000 in aiding use. Parenthood is definitely a other countries. No other part of marriage and it is wrong | country could compete with this for people to marry and avoid generosity. parenthood."

President Ernesto de la Guardia has "condemned and disapproved" violent demonstrations by Panamanian nationalists against United States control of the April or May of next year. canal zone.

PARIS—An eight-man gov ernment delegation led Christian de Margerie of. French foreign office flew Moscow Wednesday for trade negotiations with the Soviet Union.

TORONTO-George Dulmage, day of leukemia.

LONDON-Dame Lucile Newell jor, Lorne Sayers.

WASHINGTON — Canadian Ambassador A. D. P. Heeney is suffering from a prostate gland condition and will be in hospital for several weeks, his office said Wednesday. The 57-year-old diplomat will undergo surgery in about two weeks.

OTTAWA— External Affairs Minister Green will attend, with Defence Minister Pearkes and Finance Minister Fleming. and Monday.

PRINCETON, N.J.— Miss Ida short story writer, died yesterday of coronary thrombosis being given a clean bill of health $129,000, was rigged. his doctor He entered hospital two weeks ago for what was described as a checkup and rest from overwork.

NEW YORK—The Archbishop CANBERRA—Arthur Calwell added: he said the United States has

PANAMA CITY, Panama — Walter Nash of New Zealand indicated Wednesday that a Commonwealth prime ministers conference likely will be held in LONDON—Canadian-born actor Paul Carpenter is asking by Britain's divorce court to order his actress wife Kim Parker to return to him. Carpenter, 39, formerly of Montreal, married Miss Parker, 26, in 1956. She later filed suit for divorce, namling as co-respondent the British. 49, former sports editor of the actress Sabrina. Miss Parker's Toronto Telegram, died yester- suit now has been dismissed. Miss Parker is in Las Vegas, Nev.

EDMONTON — Arnold Edin-Sayers, a former British delegate burgh, editor of Saturday magato the United Nations, collapsed zine, said Wednesday the place on a London street, and died for book censorship in Canada is Wednesday. She was 73. Dame in the home. Speaking to the given her feminine Men's Canadian Club here, he equivalent of knighthood in 1956 said no legislation can eliminwas the widow of a British ma- ate the small section of objectionable literature from news-

Position open for Van Doren

Van Doren on his staff.

Dr. Richard D. Weigle, college admitted they had smoked i States cabinet desence commit- alumni secretary is open and in- year-old Toronto salesman. tee at Camp David, Md., Sunday | dicated Van Doren would be ser- | The two women have pleaded, he apply or be recommended.

Van Doren, who received his A. R. Wylie, 74, novelist and bachelor of arts degree from St. and his $50,000-a-year job with MONTREAL — Paul - Emile NBC in the wake of his confes- Mann, a halfback import with

> Prince Rupert Daily News Thursday, November 5, 1959

DRAMATIC RESCUE-A camera crew worked from the bow of a lifeboat to film thrilling rescue scenes in MGM's new Andrew and Virginia Stone Production, "The Last Voyage," suspensful story of the sinking of an ocean liner. The unusual picture, in which an actual ocean liner was used, was filmed largely off the coast of Japan. Robert Stack, Dorothy Malone, George Sanders and Edmond O'Brien are the stars.

MOVIE COLUMN

Sordid, shocking films catering to jerks says top cartoon-maker

By BOB THOMAS

sorship in movies.

reaction to the movies: "Fine! That'll just mean a bigaudience for Disney pic-that are shocking and sordid. "I think they're making mistake. I don't believe the wide audience wants to see such cized for injecting horror into industry public relations wing, ering to the jerks.

A PRIVATE MATTER

offended by it."

HOLLYWOOD M - Walt does not think outside censor- versy, but he answered the cen- in Phoenix Wednesday, married Disney offers a calming note ship is the answer. "I'm against sors angrily. "It's high time we and working for the state of amid the furor over sex and cen- censorship," he said flatly. "I started living in an up-to-date Arizona.

side the film industry and out-all forms of expression. I con't any more." His logic prevailed, interviewer. side, is to tag officially certain think some small group of indi- and the ban was lifted. outspoken movie's with an viduals should have the power The cartoon wizard believes was believed drowned until late town can read and see.

can still function well by censor- other studios don't seem to share Anthony's parish at Wailuku on ing its own product. I'm in favor his view. They're delving more the Hawaiian island of Main But, on a more serious note, of press re groups, like the re- and more into subject matter with the name of Father Damier he deplored the trend of film ligious organizations, keeping an producers to delve into subjects eye on what we do. They're a healthy influence. But outside dustry are getting touchier about a censership would be bad."

like to be scared," he has ex-series on the new moral outlook clothes, was found near a Mauj plained, but he has had only one in films, declaring it invited beach. serious tangle with the censors, more censorship. The articles An air and sea search conting "To a lot of people in this That was in 1954, when the New actually took no stand, but the ued for almost a week and regcountry, sex is a private thing. York State censor board ordered readers have. Letters are still usem mass was held for being born.

On the other hand, Disney Disney rarely gets into contro- March 4 from Hawaii, turned up

"adults only" label. Disney's to say what the citizens of a the salvation of the film industry in March when he was reported is not in more daring movies, but alive but ill. "I believe the movie business in fare for the whole family. The He was assistant pastor of St that is unsuitable for tender Meyer. minds. And segments of the inthe moral revolution in films. A top gun of COMPO, the all-The producer has been critithings on the screen. By making his cartoons. "I think people took pot-shots at my recent when his car, containing his They don't want to see it por- a cut in "The Vanishing Prairie." pouring in, and all decry the priest at St. Anthony's March 10. trayed on the screen. They're The scene showed a buffalo calf trend toward increasing sex in

Lost priest. found safe, wed, working

PHOENIX, Ariz. (P)-A Roman Catholic priest who disappeared

think we have progressed beyond world," he said. "You simply He is David P Meyer, 28, ah The growing trend, both in-that, in books and movies and can't ignore such things as birth employment security conimission

After his disappearance, Meyer

He and his wife. Rofina. de clined comment on their recent He said his past "isn't ma terial" and doesn't concern him Meyer was presumed drowned

Pair testifies Argo player

TORONTO () Two women testified at a county court trial Wednesday that Toronto Argonaut sootball star Dave Mann, 27 was smoking marijuana with three other persons in his city apartment the night before it was raided by police-last sum-

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (A) — The; Geraldine Chipman, 24, and president of St. John's College Gail D'Arcy, 24, who are charged said Wednesday he personally with illegal possession of the would be willing to have Charles drug, denied knowledge of marijuana in their apartment but meeting of the Canada-United president, noted the position of with Mann and Jack Kane, 25-> lously considered for it should not guilty to the charge. Mann and Kane have also been charged with illegal possession of marijuana in the apartment John's in 1947, lost his teaching they shared and were committed position at Columbia University last September for trial before a judge and jury.

Cardinal Leger was released sion Monday that the quiz show the Big Four Argos, was susfrom hospital Wednesday after Twenty-One, on which he won pended from the team pending the outcome of the hearing.

Check and Compare! Then Hurry and Buy "Lady Pat" Oil Range at Savings!

It's good budget news when you can buy an oil range at $219.50 . . . specially when it's the Lady Pat! You'll enjoy modern kitchen beauty because it's styled for today's home with a solid French-style cooking top, has an all-porcelain enamel finish (even on the oven). And check these construction features: All-welded construction, equipped with Breeze Oil Burner and Rheotrol control, gives variable oil flow and fan speed.

BUDGET TERMS AVAILABLE

Also Available for Immediate Delivery are

OIL HEATERS

EATON'S OF CANADA

PHONE 3144

PRINCE RUPERT

PHONE 3124

SMINAMING

PRIZES!

TICKETS AT THE DOR

The second of th