Dersons

Weekend

VOL. XLVIII, No. 125

Telephone 6767

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., MONDAY, JUNE 29, 1959

Doat mishab Kill

Night Calls-Business 6768, Editorial 6769

PRICE TEN CENTS

to house tourists; hotel space tight in Rupert district over

Visitors to Prince Rupert are experiencing increasing difficulties in obtaining accommodation this

This situation was evident today after a check of local hotels and other concerns.

"We are telling our tourists to keep out of town because we tel, said the hotel had been just haven't got room for "packed" for the past month. them," reported Karl Lundstrom of Ellis Air Lines.

Mr. Lundstrom said that with- coming a state, he said. in one week five carloads of Amtheir cars due to the lack of ac-DROVE ON their car here while in Ketchikan neglected to make reservations had, intended to stay in Prince were being turned away. Rupert but were forced to drive on, he said.

to stay over in Prince Rupert Banquet Room. visited Kitimat instead, staying FULL SOME TIME there several days. "The situation is terrifically tight," Mr. Lundstrom sald. B. I. Anderson of Canadian Pacific Airlines said that he had "never seen space so tough" in the four years he has resided in Prince Rupert. MAKES APPEAL

Jocelyn Bolton, secretary of the Prince Rupert Tourist Burcau and curator of the museum, has appealed to local residents to make rooms available.

"We have had a number of people calling lately who are desperate for a place to overnight," she reports. "And we have also received other complaints in this regard."

Mrs. Bolton asks residents with sice at 5637, leaving particulars of telephone number and

"These tourists just require a other nights. bedroom, no meals, just a clean room to sleep in.

"POOR PUBLICITY" "It is poor publicity for our had to turn away a lot of people. Rupert Rowing and Yacht Club city that we cannot help these Parkside Motel: "Full up for a Friday night. visitors, especially as there is no month." campsite even in our area.

to two rooms."

owner of the Prince Rupert Ho-'ed in their boats.

More people are travelling this crican tourists had to sleep in the executive-type," he noted. As for the many the hotel has I had to turn away, "they take it ! in good humor," Mr. Bosner said, Another party who had left adding that only those who had

The Prince Rupert Hotel has extended its accommodation Yet another samily planning somewhat by adding cots to the

> Jerry Sherman, manager of the Savoy, agreed that accommodation is tight "But I would be very surprised if anyone had to sleep out of necessity rather than |choice." He said the Savoy has | been full sor some time but added that accommodation had been found for those it could not put

The situation in some other hotels as reported this morning: Bayview, principally a residential hotel,—always full up. |Has had inquiries from tourists | but has had to turn them away. Commercial—full up for a month, has been turning people!

New Royal-full on weekends rooms available to phone her of since "sometime back in April." Ocean View-full Saturday night. The manager could not | dress. be reached for information on > on, mostly on weekends." St. Elmo-"the telephone's skippers from a licence fee if they only rent one As a result three youngsters in the party slept on the floor of pidwier asks crowd for aid during arrest manded in custody by Magistrate E. T. Applewhaite came along, 13 boats officially in city police court this morning when he pleaded of North Dakota dropped off at guilty to charges of causing a disturbance by fighting Westview with engine trouble.

Airport ferry arrives here

The ferry bont that will go ! a into operation next year to carry ! A passengers to and from the aird port on Digby Island arrived' a in port this morning.

The former North Vancouver A ferry fied up at the former dry-' A clock sile and will remain there! a until the airport is opened.

The vessel left Vancouver har- |tence, Abor Thursday night under tow !

Talks resume

VANCOUVER (D.--With a strike) dendiline only a wook away, no- traffic deaths a rothitions were expected to be a resumed today between represen-4 Milliven of 27,000 Brilliah Columbia woodworkers and 127 constal a lumber companies.

> DRUGS LTD. DIAL

countered have been minor ones! RCMP told the court that Jeur- and according to more than one issen was fighting with another voice in the group "we've had person in front of a local case a wonderful trip so far." and while being arrested put up During one minor repair job, on considerable fight during in Queen Charlotte Sound, the which he struck an RCMP con- doctor in the party, Dr. Dwight!

result of it.

Drownings equal Two hours are spont each time! they stop to gus up.

traffic deaths across Canada this the floor of the club lounge | sold 48,000 pounds to Atlin fishtoll mounted Sunday night to at The cruise got under way medium, 19.5 cents for large [lonst 50. The tell includes five again at 6 o'clock Saturday and 12 cents for chicken-size porsons drowned nour Prince morning, Ruport and six burned to double

Int Skidogalo Indian Mission. Truffle doubles, which usually ! claim the highest proportion of now gone 165 days nant with 40,000 pounds and quitted of a murder charge in the which will be bringing all types were released the total, took at loast 18 lives, without a fatal traffic the Margaret 1 roported in a Canadian Press accident.

year, due partly to Alaska's be-"We've been getting more of Old Empress—full up "off and been ringing all weekend." Has States berthed at the Prince

The crews of 12 small cabin Froggate of Renton, Washington, "We have checked with the cruisers that berthed at Prince Chamber of Commerce, who in Rupert Rowing and Yacht Club the cruise is sponsored by the turn checked with the city Friday night were unable to find Alaska Sportsman, an Alaskan'

Hazen Bonser, manager and the club lounge and others bunk-Antone Jeurissen, 25, of Prince Rupert was re- when the June 20 take off date and obstructing a police officer.

the time of the fracas was in a fishing. His catch—a three-court this morning. frenzy and "no one knows pound blueback, , what could have arisen" as a erowd for assistance, police said, outboards, from the Pacific Master, a Straits vey Johnson, 22, of Prince Ru- the faster boats. port was fined $75, costs or in de- If the distance lengthens out to another person. The tow also included a scow fault of payment sentenced to 30 too far between the leading boat Aladen with pontoons for forry days in juil when he also pleaded and the one bringing in the guilty to causing a disturbance roar, the lead boat stops to lot!

The other enteh up. Average' Ispeed is about 18 to 10 knots.'

By The Canadian Propa

Weekend drownings vied with stors in the party trying out wookend as the accidental death at the yacht club.

Prince Rupert

Georgia. The cruise began in Robert Henning, editor of the gate sald "sure,"

Mr. Froggate had planned the QUEEN ELIZABETH, a bit on the annoyed side the day before, just prior to the Quebec state dinner, reportedly because of |sel 22; Eva Russell, 22; Cora Rus-Cruiser tieet early pressures of the royal tour, smilingly waves at crowds at |sell, 18; Randy Good, 2 and an |chance to escape. Three Rivers the following day. Today after a busy weekend, highlighted by a series of ceremonies at the St. Lawrence Seaway from Seattle power project, the Queen and Prince Philip are at Toronto.

Yesterday they spent three hours in Kingston. Same smile as is shown above was flashed at Daily News editor J. R. Ayres, ties up here who gives his impressions of meeting the Queen in an illustrated By GLADYS BALDWIN Twelve small cruisers with leachers support city

The British Columbia Teachers' Federation has M. Robb, at which time the bod- tion. added its voice to requests that the CBC should do a sworn in. magazine. Boat crews are mostly! families and drawn from as far away as North Carolina and

Boy injured trip himself and mentioned it to by explosion

Alaska Sportsman. When asked! if he'd like company, Mr. Frog-Fred Watmough, 14, of 739 Fifth Avenue, is in "serious condition" in hospital after Letters were received from all a dynamite cap exploded toover the United States and one day. He suffered multiple lacerations all over the body. RCMP were still investigating the accident at press time and could give no further de-

Only other difficulties en-Motor boat operator fined

II. Findley, of Medford, Ore., vessel while his ability was im- Prince Rupert. Police went on to tell the skippered a 25-foot Owens craft, paired by alcohol brought a $150 "It merely intended to point were still in the vessel after it magistrate that the crowd at |put the delay to good use by fine to a city man in police out a problem which existed in was pumped out by the RCMP

Dr. Findley's craft is the larg- the count before Magistrate E. centennial celebrations." est and the only one with an T. Applewhalte.

Jourlssen was shouting to the around the 23 foot size and all nes was operating his fishing showing of a TV film on Prince He will appear July 6 for sen- Four ship to shore radios are and when apprehended gave The telegast was followed by a was on deck when the accident vessel Saturday while intoxicated Rupert over CBUT this spring. carried and they are spread out police considerable difficulty. | storm of protest from local or- occurred. She and the other five so that one is behind, two Police said it was "very for- Jganizations and citizens. Also in police court today, Har- around the middle and one in tunate" he did not cause an, The B.C. Teachers' Federation

Four halibut boats land 220,000 lbs.

At Prinon Rupert no hotel | accomodations were available Pour vessels landed a betal of so the party bunked in their | 220,000 pounds of hallbut boats with the three young- Prince Ruport this morning. On the exchange the Tor ories for prices of 19.2 cents for mentary school in the last week by members of the National hallbut. The B.C. Lady sold 82,-1 000 pounds to B.C. Packers for has 10.1, 10.5 and 13.

pounds, made direct landings man during a March 10 fight at She is slated to sail for the facial lacorations, to the Prince Rupert Fisherman's Badger between police and pick- Queen Charlotte Islands tomer-. Co-operative Association, on CBC's TV film issue inquest scheduled An inquest was scheduled second TV program on Prince Rupert, it was learned the fire at the reserve which is victims is scheduled to open 7 Island.

A letter to this effect has been

W. W. Inglis, program director of ly after it left Port Edward on

"Is there any chance that tending a revival meeting at Port while clambering over a boat at cil." CBUT could sponsor another pro- Edward. gram on the city portraying its SAVED BY GILLNETTER favorable aspects

RECRUITMENT DIFFICULT "In these days of teacher shor-| Canyon Reef who spotted them | Port Edward RCMP commend-| tage Prince Rupert finds it diffi- shortly after midnight. cult to recruit teaching staff and | RCMP at Port Edward said ies officials and employees for the teachers consider it unfair that the Canyon Reef got in the "excellent co-operation given program will make recruitment she landed with the survivors. tragedy. still more difficult.

film was not intended to portray boat to the Port Edward net-A charge of operating a motor the disadvantages of the city of lofts floats.

the city last summer. I refer to and Nelson Brothers Fisheries! James Innes pleaded guilty to to the riots resulting from the employees.

Inboard motor. The rest are RCMP told the court that In- The correspondence followed necident with his bout or injury wrote its letter to the CBC on its lown initiative. Earlier it had received a letter from the Prince | Ruport Teachers' Association condomning the TV program. The lotter from the local asso-| clation expressed concern that | ttion of tenchors socking posts ing. [that Prince Ruport teachers were] against the film. Local teachors saw the film at Vancouver to hall pleketing of a showing at King Edward Ele- the shipping firm's vessels there

Laing acquitted al dispute with the oting loggora.

Blaze fatal to six; five die in sinking eight of them children, in two separate tragedies in the Prince Rupert area over the weekend. Six persons perished in an early-morning fire Saturday at Skidegate Indian Mission on the Queen Charlotte Islands and five members of another family drowned early Sunday morning in a gillnet fishing vessel one mile south of Port Edward.

family, another child and neighbor were: William Morse, 14; Brenda Morse, 10; Lorraine Morse, 7; Roberta Morse, 4; Angeline Arason, 4; and Ralph Young 38. Drowned after being trapped in the cabin and below deck of the Lorna Kay gillnetter were:

young sons Benjamin Derrick and Arnold Derrick.

clinging to the overturned vessel

Arthur Derrick, 24; Paul Russel 22; Eva Russell, 22; Cora Ruswere trapped below and had no Wedgesday. unidentified baby girl. The blazing five-room house of fisherman Robert Morse trap-| through an interpreter. ped four of his children. The remains of the family including ound among the rulns.

Mr. Morse was fishing and his

An inquest was scheduled to two-year-old Randy Good who is start Saturday under Coroner G. being held for further observa- to," he told the Daily News this ies were to be viewed and a jury

1 120 miles southwest of here. All those who drowned in the cral Home. It is expected there adjourned until a further date. Television Station CBUT, said in its way back to Cassiar Cannery. The 11 persons had been at- Dawes, who fell and cut his head if permissable, before City Coun-

The survivors were taken out eral Hospital by city ambulance of the water by the gillnetter and released the same day.

ed both Nelson Brothers Fisherthat your previous unfavorable touch with them immediately the police" at the time of the The RCMP boat Nanaimo, was In a letter of reply, Mr. Inglis rushed to the scene from Prince Rupert, arriving there at 2:10/ "I can assure you that the CBC a.m. She dragged the foundered

All five bodies of the victims'

Only one survivor, Miss Cora ing well, was discharged Fri-Russell, was available for com-

VICTIMS BELOW DECKS

uninterrupted

Mr. Pinlayson said that an injunction had been obtained in Association of Marine Engineers

CORA RUSSELL

... survived sinking persons saved were all out on

She was unable to give further!

The fishboat is owned by Cas-and all were released shortly af-

the Port Edward dock. He was'

| brought into Prince Rupert Gen-/

MM appears

after surgery

underwent surgery Tuesday.

She was accompanied from the hospital by her husband,

She entered the hospital

Monday for the surgery, desorthed as of a gynecological

special wave for two work-

mon in an apartment house across the street from the sign in a window, reading:

The glamorous star had a playwright Arthur Miller, nature.

well, rested

details of the tragedy,

Fire and drowning took the lives of 11 persons,

Killed in the blaze that took the lives of four children of one

Jonathan Derrick, 34, skipper; his 29-year old wife Rosie; his

SIX RESCUED

Rescued after they were found brother Herbert Derrick, 13; his ine Aranson and Mr. Young were The Morse children and Angelfrom another cannery on the wife was visiting neighbors.

received here by the Prince Ru- 32-foot gillnetter were inside the will be a viewing of the bodies the Trailer Park bylaw will imwheel house and below deck after which the inquest will be pose very grave hardship upon us A letter from the Federation to when the craft tipped over short-

There will be no interruption the film might effect recruitment of service for Northland Navigaof teachers here. It asked the tion Co. Ltd., R. B. Finlayson, Federation to bring to the atten- local manager said this morn-

raier petition for Mayor

Owners of 24 trailers ordered to vacate by July today petitioned Mayor . J. Lester and City Council for a special meeting tonight.

It had not been determined at press time whether the meeting would take place. (Normally 24) hours notice is required before a (special meeting can be held,) Also planned tonight is a special meeting of the executive of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce to study the trailer

ORDERED TO MOVE Thursday it was reported that operators of three city trailer courts had given orders to 24 trailers to vacate by July 1. Their action followed a city council decision not to extend the 120-day limit on trailer park-

The operators maintain that the 120-day limit makes it uneconomic to do further improvements to their facilities. Unless four-year old playmate Angel- siar Cannery, Mr. Derrick's em- up to specifications trailers ployer. A company spokesman would be required by the city to said the six who were saved were leave.

ine were believed to have been Skeena River and were being trailer owners who drew up the All of the survivors were taken have decided not to move, despite petition, said the trailer owners to Miller Bay Indian Hospital their orders to do so.

terwards with the exception of "NOT GYPSIES" morning. "We're not gypsies." Among those living in the An inquest on the drowning working on the airport on Digby trailers are families of men

The petition reads in part:

o'clock tonight at Ferguson Fun-| and our families and we request Further casualty early Sunday the opportunity to discuss this morning was Coroner George J. matter with our representatives,

Pair fined for fighting

Two Port Simpson men were fined a total of $85 Saturday morning when they pleaded guilty before Magistrate E. T. Applewhalte in city police court to charges of causing a disturb-

Fined $50 or in default of payment sentenced to 30 days in jail was Leslie Campbell, while Wilfred Campbell, the other man in NEW YORK (/r) - Marilyn | the brawl, was fined $35 with an Monroe, smiling and appear- alternative of 21 days. Penalized $5 or three days was ance by fighting.

day from hospital where she Leslie Saarie of no fixed address who pleaded guilty to trespassing ion CNR property. Ephraim Johnson, of Porcher Island, charged with operating a motor vessel while impaired by alcohol pleaded not guilty and was remanded at the request of the Crown until 4 p.m. July 3. Willa Ray appeared for Johnson, Mrs. Ray asked for an adjournment of a charge of causing wilful damago against William Parker Odell and Ruby Eleanor hospital. They had posted a Dudoward Odell. The case was remanded lintil 10:30 July 4. No "We love Marilyn, Nick and pleas were entered.

Two injured

Two city men were taken to (CLC) who are in a jurisdiction- Prince Ruport General hospital dispute with the Seamon's early Saturday evening when the car in which they were riding TIDES—struck a tree on Wantage road. TIDES— 8T. JOHN'S, Mild. ()— Earlo Schoduled to arrive here at struck a tree on Wantage road. with 50,000 death of a Newfoundland police- of general cargo and perishables, shortly after being treated for overnight. cloudy Tuesday. Not much tomperature. Winds southerly 15 Tuesday. Low tonight and high Tuesday 52 and 62,

ROMP say charges are pend-

WEATHER-

(Pacific Standard Time) 18,1 foot 8.7- loot