Rev. Henry H. Sanborn, Episcopal Church archbishop for Alaska, arrived in the city on yesterday afternoon's train from a trip East and sailed on the Princess Charlotte this morning for Ketchikan.

With a full list of tourist passengers, C.P.R. steamer Princess Charlotte, Capt. C. C. Saintey, arrived from the south at 7 o'clock this morning and sailed at 9 for Alaska. Before mooring at the government wharf, the Charlotte called at the ocean dock to unload an automobile.

By far the most noticeable of the passengers who arrived in the city from the East on yesterday afternoon's train was a young man, betraying an unmistakeable English tongue, whose unhatted mass of bright red hair would do shame to the most of women. On the streets of the city today, he also attracted much attention. He gave his name as Hamish Douglas and stated that he had come from Vanderhoof and was seeking to work his way to Vancouver aboard a steamer.
