NAVAL DANCE LAST EVENING

Pretty Affair Held by Petty Officers and Men With Officers Guests of Honor

The annual dance last night in the Moose Hall by the petty officers' and men's mess of the local detachment of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve, at which the officers accompanied by their wives, were out in full muster as honored guests, was an enjoyable and successful affair with some two hundred persons present. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion in the blue and white colors of the detachment and dancing was in progress from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m., tuneful music being furnished by an orchestra led by Dave Eastman. Uniforms of the members of the detachment mingled harmoniously with the beautiful gowns of the ladies.

One of the features of the evening was the presentation by Seaman Hubert MacDonald, on behalf of the unit, of a beautiful sterling silver cigarette case to Lieut. R. P. Ponder, retiring officer commanding, who is leaving the city shortly. Seaman MacDonald suitably expressed the regrets of the detachment at Lieut. Ponder's departure and wished him and Mrs. Ponder all success and prosperity in their new field. Lieut. Ponder responded appropriately, voicing his appreciation for the token of esteem and his regret at having to leave the detachment over which he had been in command since its inception.

Miss Thelma Bunn was called upon to draw the lucky ticket for a cut glass water set and tray. The number was 171 held by Miss H. MacDonald.

The event was under the general supervision of Chief Petty Officer George J. Dawes, others on the committee including Seaman Jack McAuley, Seaman F. McDonald, Seaman H. McDonald, Seaman Edgar Saunders and Seaman F. Dyer. Serving of refreshments at midnight was under the direction of Mrs. J. Lawrence. Seamen N. McGlashin and H. Dyer presided at the door.

SPORT CHAT

Basketball fans have been unanimously interested to learn that it has been again arranged to hold in Prince Rupert an inter-High School basketball series at the end of the month. For two years now, Anyox and Prince Rupert have so met, the series proving very popular. Now the entry of Ocean Falls will make it doubly interesting, the boys from the paper town being particularly welcome. It is only to be regretted that a like series for girls has not been arranged for next year but at another time this may be taken care of. It is estimated that the staging of the series will cost Prince Rupert in the neighborhood of $300. Under the circumstances, it is to be hoped that the game will be given the measure of local support in the way of attendance they deserve.

Several of the boys around Anyox have been working on an ice skating rink up near the new school. In the very near future there should be some good skating in Anyox, of course weather permitting. It will no doubt be quite a novelty for the residents of the smelter town to get a skate on in this fashion.

BASKETBALL LAST NIGHT

Small Crowd Out to Watch One-Sided Senior and Intermediate League Games

Due no doubt to unfavorable weather, there was but a small attendance at last night's basketball games which were not up to the usual standard of play of the season. In the Senior League, the Native Sons of Canada further confirmed their leadership by beating the Grand Terminals 34 to 21. In the Intermediate League, Big Four defeated the Elevator 50 to 29 in a lob-sided encounter. The scheduled Ladies' League game was called off. These were the final games of the first half of the season.

Individual scoring was as follows:

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

Big Four.—Ernie Ratchford, 16; F. Dingwall, 10; R. Mortimer, 6; Tom Kelsey, 18; D. Stalker, 4. Total 50.

Elevator.—C. Donald, 7; W. Murray; Sonny Currie; N. McLeod; Gordon Parkin, 4; A. Murray, V. Meagher, 11. Total 29.

Refere: Ralph Smith.

SENIOR LEAGUE

Grand Terminals—Joe Gosse, 1; J. McNulty, 5; A. Slocomb, 6; Poli Howard, 7; R. Smith, 2. Total 21.

Native Sons of Canada.—Dido Gurvich, 17; Spiro Gurvich; Vic Menzie; Clarence Thomson, 7; E. Ratchford, 10; total 34.

Referee: Douglas Stalker.

Umpire: Vincent Meagher.

GAMBLING CASE EVIDENCE HEARD

Judgment in Charge Against Ben Self to be Given This Afternoon With Alleged Frequenters Following

Taking of evidence in the case of Ben Self charged in city police court with being the keeper of a common gaming house at the Grand Terminal Club where seven men were playing cards around a table with others watching. The police allege that gambling was going on and that a rake-off was being taken for the house. Witnesses for the crown were Sergeant Hannah, Sergeant McNeill and a Norwegian named Knutsen, the last mentioned giving evidence to the effect that a rake-off was being taken.

On defence evidence, the endeavor was made to prove that it was merely a friendly game engaged in between members of the club and guests and that no rake-off was taken for the house. The only rake-off it was customary to take was to cover the cost of cards used. Defence witnesses who testified along this line were Vic Rogers, Dave Milne, Jimmy Dawe, Jock Watt and Red Young, the last mentioned of whom was alleged to have been banker of the particular game in question.

E. F. Jones, city solicitor, is prosecuting while Milton Gonzales is appearing for the defence.

The cases of seventeen men, who were arrested and charged with being frequenters, will be dealt with at the close of the Self case.
