Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

JUNIOR SOCCER GAME SATURDAY

Booth Won Closely Contested Game From Borden by 1-0

Before a fair number of spectators, Booth won over Borden 1-0 in Saturday's regular football fixture in the Junior League.

Booth started down hill and Steen was early called on. Borden forced a corner and McKay had to clear. Dickens was prominent with a clever run. Pyle defended well for Borden and Vaucher showed up to advantage. Murray stopped him and Bussanich forced Steen to save. Gurvich kicked well but Booth attacked for Wood to shootpast. Walters made a good run and with Bussanich kept the Borden defence busy. Hardy defended well and Fisher stopped Bacon. Walters then shot over. A scramble around the Borden goal was fruitless. Steen saved from Dickens. Borden broke away and McKay was called on. Fisher and Morgan defended well and Walters was nearly through but the ball slid off the upright with no one able to put it through. Booth was on top but could not score. Pyle defended well and then Steen saved finely from Bussanich.

The second half saw Booth press. Both Walters and Bacon centred well. Borden now took up the aggressive but Collison, Nelson and Murray were not to be beaten. Walters was dangerous and narrowly headed past from Collison's pass. Bussanich tricked two men to score with a fine shot that gave Steen no chance. Macdonald defended well. Borden played harder. Nakomoto missed a good opening and a long shot of MacDonald worried McKay. Play alternated from end to end but there was no further score.

THE TEAMS.

Borden—Steen, P. Fisher, Pyle; Morgan, Gurvich, Hardy; Fong, Vaccher, MacDonald, Chenoski, Nakamoto.

Booth—McKay; Murray, Nelson; Ivarson, Collison (captain), Wingham; Walters, Dickens, Bussanich, Wood, Bacon.

Jack Campbell refereed and W. W. C. O'Neil and W. Collison were linesmen. For Borden—Steen, Morgan, Hardy and Gurvich were best. Booth was well served by Nelson, Collison, Wingham, Walters and Bussanich.

SPORT CHAT

The Smithers Athletic Club has decided to purchase eight lots on First Avenue of that town as the permanent site of a skating rink and to start at once on the construction of a skating enclosure as well as a ten-foot fence to protect against wind and the gate receipts of the association. As a result of the profits of the Dominion Day celebration at Smithers which have been turned over to the Athletic Club, the organization will have something in the neightborhood of $800 with which to proceed with the project. Plans for basketball were also discussed by the Association and a grant of $25 was made to the Smithers Schools for the purpose of acquiring athletic equipment.

An enjoyable tennis tournament took place at Gisoome recently between teams repreesenting Prince George and Giscome, the former team being the winners of the tournament with a four to three score. All events were keenly contested, and a splendid reception tendered the visiting team. The following were the results: Newman and Foot won from Dr. Laishley and Varley; Gagne and Warner won from Reid and McLean; Foot won from Dr. Laishley; Newman lost to Varley; Gagne lost to Reid, and Warner won from McLean. In a return match Newman and oFot lost to Dr. Laishley and Varley.

PRINCE GEORGE

Much comment was heard in the city over a quantity of apples brought in by Germund Mathias Haddeland from his farm in the vicinity of Bednesti. The varieties included Yellow Transparent, Duchess, Oldenburg and Wealthy and the quality was as fine as any ever seen here.

Charles Nichol, a farmer living on Clear Creek on the Fort St. James road, was found guilty by Magistrate J. D. Charlesson of Vanderhoof on a charge or having in his possession beer or mash suitable for the manufacture of spirits. Thirty days' imprisonment and a fine of $200 were imposed under the Excise Act. The case resulted from a raid made recently by Sergeant H. E. Taylor and Constables Turnbull and Mansell. J. O. Wilson appeared for the crown and A. McB. Young for the defence.

During their stay in the city Thursday night, members of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, going East on a special train, were given a drive around the city by the Prince George Board of Trade.

Mrs. G. W. Smith has returned home after spending three months in the southern part of the province on vacation.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE HELD

Splendid Music at Presbyterian Church Yesterday for Special Occasion

Special harvest thanksgiving services were held both morning and evening yesterday in the First Presbyterian Church. The building was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit and grain and in spite of the inclement weather there were large congregations at both services.

The morning service was especially for children and the junior choir sang two choruses, readings being given by Marcel Jabour and Winnie Cameron. Rev. J. R. Frizell delivered an appropriate sermon, his subject being "Christ's Call to the Young."

The evening service was largely of a choral nature and the choir, trained by John Davie, who is also the organist, sang particularly well, the twenty or more voices blending well and being effective. There were two anthems by the full choir with Mrs. F. W. Allen, A. Clapperton and J. A. Teng soloists. A new soloist was Miss Jackson who sang some effectively. Miss Davies and Mrs. Brocklesby also sang well, their solos being much appreciated.

The subject of the minister at this service was "Nature's Glory Song."
