WALKING BACK MELODRAMA AT THE WESTHOLME

A picture of modern young people on a somewhat different social stratum is "Walking Back" which will be shown at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow. Based on George Kibbe Turner's widely read magazine serial "A Ride in the Country," Monte Katterjohn has written a rapid-fire melodrama of up-to-the-minute boys and girls confronted with the modern problems of hold-up men, bootleggers, wild automobile rides and parties.

Sue Carol, a new Wampas Baby star, and Richard Walling, son of the talented stage and screen character Will Walling, play the leading roles of the two "flaming youths." Ivan Lebedeff, Robert Edeson, Jane Keckley, Florence Turner and other capable players acquit themselves with genuine artistry.

TWENTY YEARS AGO CHARLES HAYS SAID GRAIN WOULD COME

The "Twenty Years Ago" column of the Vancouver Province recently recalls an interview in New York in which Charles M. Hays, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, predicted that the completion of the new transcontinental railway and the opening of the Panama Canal would divert a large amount of the prairie grain crop from eastern ports to Prince Rupert.

The same column repeated an announcement by the provincial government that it would build a sixty foot wharf at Prince Rupert.

ORGAN RECITAL IS FINE TREAT

Ewart Lyne Proved Himself Master of Instrument at Cathedral Last Evening

Music lovers of this city had a wonderful treat last night in the pipe organ recital by Ewart Lyne of the Capitol Theatre orchestra at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral. Mr. Lyne proved himself indeed a master of this instrument and his skill both in technique and expression was the subject of much compliment if not surprise. He proved that the pipe organ is really his instrument and those who heard him last night expressed the desire that it might soon be their privilege to hear him again.

Mr. Lyne gave a varied program to demonstrate his proficiency. Probably the most notable number was his own fantasia entitled "The Storm," in which were introduced the hymns "The Day Thou Gavest," "Eternal Father, Strong to Save," and "Peace, Perfect Peace." He also played compositions by Guilmant, Wostenholme, Batiste, Mailly, Schumann and Sibelius.

The program opened with a processional hymn and there was also a closing hymn. During the taking of the offertory for the organ fund, the choir sang the anthem, "Radiant Morn."

FEW CHANGES MADE ON VOTERS' LIST

Municipal Court of Revision Has Brief Session, Two Names Struck Off

Court of revision on the municipal voters' list consisting of Mayor McMordie, Ald. Tinker and Ald. P. H. Linzey held a brief session this morning to revise the list. The only change made was the striking off of two names of two men who did not pay their poll tax. Tenders for the printing of the list will probably be called at tonight's council meeting.

XMAS DINNER FUND GROWING

Spirit of Co-Operation Evident in Movement to Provide For Event

Considerable interest is now being taken in the provision of the Christmas dinner for those not otherwise provided for at the Salvation Army barracks on Christmas Day. There is a helpful spirit of co-operation prevalent. For instance, the Electric Bakery has offered to cook the meats. The Bulkley Market has offered 25 pounds of meat for the occasion. Others are doubtless only waiting until they have an opportunity to tell what they will do.

There was a mistake in the report of the donation made by little Joan Watt. Her subscription was announced as $2, whereas it should have been $5. The following are the amounts received since Saturday:

Joan Watt (additional) .....$ 3
Bulkley Market, meat, 25 pounds.

The Prince Rupert Amusement Company was organized for the purpose of operating a moving picture theatre in the City of Prince Rupert. Up to the present the Company has operated in a rented building but has now completed construction of a very fine building on the main street of the City at a cost of approximately (including value of land) $109,000. This building has been leased to B. C. Paramount Theatres Limited for 15 years on the following terms: Rental $8,000 per year, together with one-half the net profits remaining after payment of such rental and other operating expenses. The Lessor also gives to the Lesee an option for three years to purchase the said property for $150,000. If this option is not exercised then the Lesee will, during the balance of the term pay $12,000 per year rental in lieu of $8,000 and one-half the net profits.

According to official records, five-sixths of the issued capital of B. C. Paramount Theatres Limited is issued in the name of Famous Players Canadian Company Ltd.

Interest and Sinking Fund on these bonds will amount to $6,850 per year.

This amount is fully taken care of by the rental to be received from the Lessee without taking into consideration any revenue to be derived from profits.

In addition to the above, the Prince Rupert Amusement Company will have a rental of about $2,500 per year from three stores in the new building. This will be more than ample to take care of all real estate taxes and incidental expenses.
