PORT CLEMENTS PLAYERS GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

PORT CLEMENTS, April 7.—On Friday, "The Players," under the direction of Mrs. N. L. Jones, gave a very enjoyable play entitled "Not So Bad After All," in the Hastie Hall.

The following was the caste (in the order of coming upon the stage):

Sally Maybud ....Miss Louis Chapman
Smart .....Mrs. N. L. Jones
James Banks .....Noel Lewis Jones
Mrs. Marchmont .....Mrs. C. B. Srigley
Captain Marchmont .....Jack Hewison
Dr. Brunt .....W. F. Hastie
Lieutenant Worthington C. B. Srigley
Mrs. Brunt .....Mrs. W. F. Hastie
Mrs. Poppett .....Mrs. W. J. Rennie
Captain Poppett .....E. Johnson
Miss Clara Smeaton .....
.....Miss Mildred Pelton

The play was preceeded by a curtain raiser—a butterfly dance by little Miss Beatrice Srigley, who made a delightfully dainty and fairy-like butterfly.

When the curtains drew apart one could almost hear one gasp of wonder from the astonished audience. It was beautiful! A garden with an apple-tree in full blossom, and borders of clumps of tulips and daffodils. The garden pailing was broken by a trellissed archway over which clambered a profusion of rambler roses.

The little fairy danced to the dainty music of flute and organ and ended by scattering apple-blossom petals amongst the audience.

Mrs. Oscar Dunlap was responsible for the production of the mass of flowers whilst Messrs. C. B. Srigley and N. L. Jones arranged the state settings. Mr. Bellowes kindly ran his engine to supply the electricity and Mr. Mallory lent the electric light bulbs. Mr. Hastie did the wiring—footlights were certainly a great addition tothe scenic effects. Whilst the scene was being changed to an indoor one a program was given under the direction of Mrs. R. T. Williams. Mr. Crocker and Mrs. Williams played Rubenstein's "Melody in F." (flute and organ) delightfully; songs were sung by Mrs. Gilchrist, Frank Pearce and the Rev. C. O. Darby.

After the play refreshments were served and a most delightful dance followed.
