TERRACE GIRLS ENTERTAINED

Miss Fountain Guest of Honor at Banquet Given by C.G.I.T.

TERRACE, Oct. 3.—It was the privilege of the Terrace C.G.I.T. and Golden Key group to meet Miss Annie Fountain, B.A., provincial secretary for Girls' Work in B.C. on Monday evening in United Church and the occasion was marked by the first banquet at which the groups have been hostesses. Prettily arranged tables were laden with good things to eat and thirty-two girls sat down with their leaders to enjoy the banquet with Miss Fountain and Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Allan, President Evelyn Thomas and past President Margaret McLaren occupied the head table.

Following the banquet Mr. Allan welcomed Miss Fountain to Terrace and described to the girls the good work she was carrying on. Then in order to acquaint Miss Fountain with the work done locally Miss Evelyn Thomas read a report on the year's work and also a good description of the enjoyable time spent in camp this past summer.

Miss Fountain was given a great ovation when she rose to speak and after expressing her delight at being able to visit the Terrace groups gave a pleasant and interesting talk on the Girls' Work generally and how it was carried on not only in the large cities but in lonely and out of the way places as well.

Following her talk she answered a number of questions asked, giving a better understanding of different phases of the work, after which group singing and group games, as studied and played during last year, were indulged in for an hour, Miss Fountain also showing them a number of new ones. She was given a very hearty vote of thanks for her evening spent among the girls.
