TERRACE HIGH PUTS ON PLAY

"It Pays to Advertise" Proved Great Success on Friday Evening

TERRACE, Jan. 16.—Terrace residents were given a real treat on Friday evening in the presentation of the popular three act farce "It Pays to Advertise," put on by the Terrace High School pupils, under the direction of Mrs. C. R. Gilbert and Miss Elderkin. It was the first appearance of any of the cast behind the footlights and they are to be highly commended on the high character of the acting displayed. The lengthy and difficult parts taken by Miss Nora Scamen as the matter-of-fact business woman; by Miss Nora Wilson as the spurious French Countess; of Miss Fanny McLaren in the masculine roll of advertising expert; of Frank Hipp as a gouty old financier; and of Alva Moore as the unbusiness-like son, deserve special mention. The Misses Bessie Moore and Elliott Head appeared in masculine rolls and these as well as all the other characters carried through their parts with great credit.

The cast was as follows:

Mary Grayson .....Nora Scamen
Johnston .....August Lips
Countess de Beaurien ....Mary Wilson
Rodney Martin ..... Alva Moore
Cyrus Martin ....Frank Hipp
Ambrose Peel ..... Fanny McLaren
George Smith .....Sydney Danhauer
Marie .....Kathleen Burnett
Miss Burke .....Evelyn Thomas
Donald McChesney ...Elmer McConnell
Ellery Clarke .....Elliott Head
Charles Bronson .....Bessie Moore

Appreciation of the capable and untiring efforts of Mrs. Gilbert as director was voiced by Alva Moore between acts.

There was a large crowd present in G.W.V.A. hall and the door receipts were slightly over one hundred dollars. The play was put on in aid of basketball funds and arrangements are already under way for the local high school girls team to visit Smithers at the end of the month for a competitive game with the girls' team of the interior town.

SIMPSON GIRL WINS MEDALS

Miss Minnie Wesley of Port Simpson Took First Prize for Canada in Confederation Essay Contest

Word has been received in the city that Miss Minnie Wesley, a Port Simpson Indian student at Coqualeetza Institute, Sardis, won the gold medal for the best essay from a native pupil in Canada, offered by the national committee for the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation. The essay, which was written last June, was on "The Place of Confederation in the Life of Canada." Miss Wesley won the silver medal for British Columbia as well as the gold medal for Canada. Rev. George H. Raley, principal of the Coqualeetza Institute, has received the gold and silver medals for Miss Wesley from the Department of Indian Affairs as well as a congratulatory letter from the head of the department and the medals will be presented at a school gathering to be held shortly. The teacher of the winning scholar will also be presented with a medal.

Miss Wesley is in her third year at the Institute and expects to matriculate in the summer of 1929. She is a bright student and has a gift for music, taking the examinations of the Royal Academy from time to time and passing with honors. Scholars from seventy-four industrial institutes and some 350 Indian day schools were invited to take part in the essay competition which Miss Wesley won.

PRINCE GEORGE

The five celebrated cider cases, which have kept a number of local merchants dancing attendance at the police court for more than two months, were disposed of last week when Magistrate N. P. Moran decided that, by reason of a defect in the handling of the cases by that police, that the convictions would not be sustained in the higher courts and, therefore, dismissed them all.

The Prince George Board of Trade has again gone on record urging that the provincial government, in event of failure to sell the road, should complete the Pacific Great Eastern to Prince George. It is suggested that the government should take advantage of the present sentiment in favor of building into the Peace River.

Alex. Wimbles and W. J. Pitman was elected school trustees at the municipal election here last week.

Prince George has enjoyed very mild weather during the past week, the thermometer descending to below zero only once.

The city council is giving notice to the local telephone company that it will not allow recent advances in charge which were made.

Newman; second vice-president, Mrs. H. G. Perry; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Dixon; treasurer, Mrs. F. A. MacCallum; leaflet secretary, Miss Douglas; praper partner, Miss Bixley.

The Prince George Construction Co. is making repairs and alterations to the business premises at the corner of Third Avenue and Quebec Street which are owned by Jacob Leith.

E. Forfar, pioneer of Northern British Columbia, who now operates a large hotel at Fort St. James, has been a visitor in Prince George during the past week.

Samuel McLellan and W. Bousefield, who were rather badly hurt in the recent collapse of a mill building at Willow River, are making good recovery at the Prince George Hospital under the care of Dr. Carl Ewart.

Jacob Leith, whose son Edward is putting in his final year in Manitoba University at Winnipeg, has received word that the boy passed the Christmas examinations with exceptionally high standing.

At a sale of 400,000 feet of logs held by Sheriff Peters to satisfy claims of creditors of the Liersh Logging Co., the lot was bought in by Lorne Lyle and Austins Ltd., for $1 per thousand.

Word was received last week by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hornby that their fifteen year old son had been killed in an accident at Spokane where he was attending school.

F. D. Taylor has put up a cup for local hockey competition while Mayor Patterson has presented medals.

M. E. Harper, local auctioneer, announces his intention of retiring from business here.

NEW HAZELTON

St. Peter's Anglican congregation at Hazelton has elected officers as follows for the year: rector's warden, E. R. Cox; people's warden, W. W. Anderson; vestry, Douglas Lay, S. J. Winsby, G. Dungate, Mrs. Sealy, Mrs. H. C. Wrinch, Mrs. Hogan, Mrs. E. R. Cox and Capt. Andrew Moore; lay delegates, R. S. Largent, Mrs. Sealy, Mrs. James Proctor; G. Dungate and Mrs. Hogan.

Rev. T. D. Proctor has been laid up for the past week with a severe cold but he was able to take services in St. Peter's church yesterday.

W. J. Larkworthy left last week on a trip east and will be away for several weeks.

The board of directors of the Hazelton Hospital met Tuesday night at the home of S. J. Winsby to make preparations for the annual patrons' meeting which will be held on Monday night of last week.

Mrs. Matheison, lady superintendent of the Hazelton Hospital, returned last week after a trip south in the course of which she underwent an operation in Vancouver as a result of which her health is now greatly improved.

The home of Douglas Lay, resident mining engineer, has been practically barooned all week as a result of the thaw melting the heavy snowfall into water.

W. W. Andersen has been suffering with a severe cold during the past week.

SKIDEGATE

Ike Martin, forest ranger, made a flying trip to the Imperial Oil station to take on fuel for the forestry boat, Embree.

No damage was done by the big storm that swept Skidegate Inlet last week.

Ben Roberts, logger, came down from Port Clements and is looking over the timber in this neighborhood.
