HAD BEEN LONG WITH SAWMILL

Albert Woodhouse, Who Dropped Dead Yesterday, Spent 22 Years With Same Concern

Albert Woodhouse, who dropped dead yesterday afternoon while engaged in repair work in the Big Bay Lumber Co.'s sawmill at Seal Cove, had been sawer with the company for 22 years, having been employed in the Georgetown mill before the plant was taken over several years ago by the present company. At Georgetown, he was head sawyer for years but, when the company moved to Prince Rupert, the state of his health made it necessary that he should become second sawyer. He had been subject to heart attacks for several years and three years ago spent six weeks in hospital.

Deceased was 58 years of age and a native of Ontario. Besides his wife, he is survived by four daughters—Mary and Agnes, who are married and live in Alaska, and Rose and Sadie. There are also two sons—Thomas and James. The youngest of the children is ten years old and all reside here except the two daughters in Alaska.

An enquiry was held this afternoon by Coroner Norman A. Watt and it was established that death had been due to natural causes. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B. C. Undertakers.

FINE MEETING LAST EVENING

Baptist Church Fireside Club Has Members of United Church Young People's Society As Guests

INTERESTING DEBATE

The meeting of the Fireside Club of First Baptist Church last night was an exceptionally successful and interesting affair. Members of the Young People's Society of First United Church were present by special invitation and the principal feature of the program was a debate on the subject "Resolved that in the Best Interests of Christian Religion, it is Desirable that all Christian Churches should be United as One Great Organized Body."

The debate was listened to with rapt attention by the large audience and arguments which were well presented by both sides showed careful preparation on the part of the speakers. The affirmative was taken by A. Halloren and James Underwood and the negative by Rev. W. F. Price and Clifford Gilker. The judges Rev. Alfred Wilson, Rev. W. W. Wright and Magistrate Thomas McClymont—decided in favor of the affirmative and, judging from the applause of the audience the decision was a popular one. A vote of thanks to the judges was passed on motion of Rev. W. F. Price.

P. H. Linney occupied the chair. The meeting opened with the usual devotional exercises and there was a vocal solo by A. Hill-Tout, accompanied by Miss Catherine Mussallem. Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Agnes Dawson, Miss Bessie Derry and Mrs. W. F. Pirce.

"THE LAST WARNING" MAKES SPINES CREEP

Mystery Melodrama Stars Laura La Plante

The lure of the mysterious—the fascination of the unknown—and the love of the world to solve crime problems—all of these partly explain the unprecedented popularity attending the viewing of Universal's mystery picture "The Last Warning" now at the Capitol Theatre, with Laura La Plante as the lead.

"The Last Warning" by Thomas F. Fallon was one of the most successful mystery plays ever to be seen on Broadway. It was staged from the book, "The House of Fear," by Wadsworth Camp. The motion picture was based on the play.

All the ingredients of mystery have been jammed into the photoplay. Mystery and terror which bring forth screams from the audience and laughter—not the laughter that a farce comedy produces—but the almost hysterical laughter of highly keyed nerves stimulated by relief from a fearful situation.
