PRINCESS CHAROTTE OUT OF COMMISSION

Princess Kathleen or Marguerite May Come North This Summer on Skagway Run

The Canadian Pacific steamer Princess Charlotte, which broke one of her tailshafts near Port Townsend in Puget Sound recently, may be out of commission until well on into the summer, as parts for making repairs have to be brought out from the old country.

The Princess Charlotte may not be ready in time to make her first scheduled Skagway trip of the season, in which case, it is understood, that either the Princess Kathleen or Princess Marguerite will take her place in taking care of heavy tourist bookings.

RAMON NAVARRO AND RENEE ADOREE STAR IN BIG PICTURE

RAY SOUTHARD

"The Wandering Old School Minstrel at Capitol for Week's Engagement

It has just been learned that Ray Southard, black-faced comedian, who will be presented to Capitol patrons for the first time tonight, is an old "Yukoner," having been in Fairbanks and Dawson in the early days and has the distinction of bringing the first organized show into those cities.

Mr. Southard is a "top-notcher" as a portrayer of the "black face" art and comes to Prince Rupert after a thousand and one successful engagements in all parts of the United States.

If you'd like to see an honest-to-goodness "dark, cloudy," comical act, come right down to the Capitol tonight. Mr. Southard comes on between shows about 9 p.m.

Senator James H. Anderson of Juneau was a passenger aboard the Princess Alice yesterday afternoon going through to Seattle.

"Forbidden Hours" Is an Intensively Human Story of a Romance Behind the Throne

Ramon Navarro, who played the unforgettable role of the young hero in "Ben-Hur," and Renee Adoree are the popular stars who appear together in the picture which opens at the Capitol Theatre tonight.

"Forbidden Hours" is a simple love story, set in the pomp and circumstance of a European court of today. Novarro plays the young king, surrounded by statesmen, traditions and the inflexible rules to which a king must ever bow; Renee Adoree is his sweetheart, a commoner, whom he is asked to forsake to wed a princess of another land in a loveless marriage arranged by diplomacy and confirmed by treaties.

Lavishly set in the pomp of a European court, it is a spectacular swirl of gorgeous uniforms, costumes, great court affairs, and a magnificently staged royal wedding in a great cathedral. But beneath all this pomp the central story is a delicate love theme.

FINE NEW BOATS FOR SERVICE THIS COAST

Three C N R Boats, Now Under Construction, Will Be Latest Word in Modern Lines

The three new steamers that are being built by Cammel-Laird & Co., at Birkenhead, England, for the Canadian National Steamships for service on this coast will be about the last thing in modern design and appointments, according to word received in this city. Three hundred and eighty-four feet long and having capacity for 420 passengers, they will also be beamy vessels and a feature of their construction will be cruiser sterns like those on the Prince Rupert and Prince George. They will be something about the same size as the C.P.R. boats Princess Marguerite and Princess Kathleen, but will not have the sharp flare just above the water line that those boats have.

SPRING SALMON HECATE STRAITS

Thirty Boats Now Fishing Out of Squaderee on Stephens Island

Thirty trolling boats are now fishing on the "flats" of Hecate Straits with headquarters at Squaderee on Stephens Island. There is a fairly good run of springs and the daily average per boat is said to be about 200 pounds.
