BIG CROWD AT THE WESTHOLME

Thrill Piled Upon Thrill in Big Picture, "Legion of the Condemned"

LAST NIGHT OPEN

Premier Orchestra Look Well in Natty New Uniforms and Play Jazz

A big crowd packed the Westholme to the doors last night and were entertained by a program of pictures and vaudeville that has yet to be surpassed. The feature picture "The Legion of the Condemned" is certainly one of the finest ever screened. Thrill is piled upon thrill as the exciting story is unfolded and the acting and treatment are superb. Gary Cooper has never been seen to better advantage and lovely Fay Wray abundantly proves her title to stardom.

"The Masked Menace" is tip-top and the "Sportlight" and "Fable" excellent. Between shows the Premier Orchestra delighted the large audience with tuneful jazz numbers and were given much applause. The young people in the orchestra, pretty girls and smart boys all looked exceedingly natty in their new uniforms.

Tonight is the closing night of the Westholme and the full show will be repeated.

The earth's coldest spot is Verkhoyansk, Siberia, just within the Arctic Circle, which experienced 90.4 degrees below zero in January, 1885.

RARE COMEDY EASTER MONDAY

Capitol Gets Keen Comedy, "Show People," For Holiday—Special Matinee Monday at 2:30

Marion Davies and William Haines are co-starred in the year's laughing hit, "Show People," which comes to the Capitol next Monday and Tuesday with a special matinee on Easter Monday at 2:30.

"Show People" is an ideal holiday picture because it is hilariously amusing entertainment. Laughs, laughs and more laughs have greeted this big comedy feature wherever it has been shown and the "Monday Nighters" and "Monday Afternooners" at the Capitol are in for a "reel" good time.

A beautiful colored film, "Buffalo Bill's Last Fight" has been obtained specially for the holiday program.

CHINAMAN NOT FOUND

In spite of searching, no trace has yet been found of the Chinese cook who became missing last Monday night from the plant of the Rupert Marine Products at Tucks Inlet. It is believed that the man may have jumped into the harbor.

KEN MAYNARD AT CAPITOL

With Wonder Horse Tarzan in "Phantom City"—Great All-Round Picture

No greater compliment can be paid a motion picture star, or his story, than to say that he has the habit of surprising his audience with unexpected thrills and situations. This has long held true of Ken Maynard, the young western star, and his latest picture, "The Phantom City," is no exception. In fact, it proves the rule, and from now on Maynard will have to live up to this reputation. His fans have come to expect it of him.

"The Phantom City" deviates from the usual western, in that the plot, while not strictly new in theme, has many deviations from the stereotype "western" and one forgets that the theme is not new. For instance, who ever thought of injecting a creepy, shivery mystery idea into a western thriller? But that is exactly what happens in this picture. The story starts with several men talking in a deserted town, amid the straggly and forlorn looking buildings and torn up streets of the old mining location. All of these characters are of a mysterious mein. They have, apparently, no business there—but there they are. Soon after, Ken appears. Later, a girl appears, and more complications arise. The mystery angle is neatly worked out and defies solving until the denouement. Ken appears to excellent advantage, and gives a great performance, injecting some miraculous stunt riding.

Inaugurating the second weekly sailing under Canadian National Coast Steamships spring schedule, C.N.R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. A. Donald, arrived in port at 12:30 noon today from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox and Stewart, returning here at 7:30 tomorrow evening and sailing south at 10 p.m.
