Man in the Moon

There will be an election soon to fill vacancies on the Seal Cove council.

It is rumored that on account of the number of bad colds in the city, especially among teachers, the schools will remain closed until Monday.

The New Year celebration would be all right if it were not for the man who would take only two fingers.

They are having summer weather on the prairies, I'm told. It hasn't been forty below yet and then only once.

When an irresistible force strikes an immovable object it's like a radio down town when local interference is at its worst.

There are a lot of useless people in the world. They resemble a check book when the account is overdrawn.

I was digging around in the attic the other day when I ran across a work basket. I'm going to present it to the Prince Rupert museum.

I remember the time
In the days long gone by,
When a woman could sew
And was modestly shy.

But these are the days
When sewing's taboo
And the aim of a girl's to
Have nothing to do.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

January 4, 1919

Col. C. W. Peck V. C. was at the head of the Canadian First Division which entered Cologne. He was carried into the German city on the shoulders of his men. Col. Peck expects to be back in Canada in time for the opening of parliament about February 15.

A fine new theatre, seating 480 people has just been opened at Ocean Falls. The building contains a bowling alley and dance hall in addition to the theatre auditorium.

A committee consisting of D. G. Stewart, E. C. Gibbons, W. E. Williams and Mrs. (Ald.) W. J. Kirkpatrick has been named by the hospital board to appoint a new matron for the Prince Rupert General Hospital in succession to Miss Carmichael who has resigned. There are many applications for the position.

ON A COUNTRY ROAD

"How did you manage to get away from the traffic cop who was after you for speeding? Did you fool him?"

"Well, not exactly; but we did manage to throw dust in his eyes."

THE MAID'S TASTE IN DRESS

"Aren't you afraid that the maid will wear your frocks when we are away?"

"Not a[illegible]! I've [illegible] no new ones in the last two months, and she doesn't wear anything older than that."—Humoristicke Listy, Prague.
