EAGLES HELD XMAS TREE

One Hundred and Twenty Children at Function Last Evening

The Christmas tree entertainment of the Eagles' Lodge last evening in the Elks' Home was a very successful affair, some 120 children as well as many adults being in attendance.

Thomas Clough, worthy president of the lodge, presided, and there was a brief though enjoyable program which included a talk to the children by J. C. Brady, M.P., piano solo by Miss Elizabeth Sturgeon and reading by Louis Astori.

Of course, the most interesting feature of the evening's proceedings, as far as the children were concerned, was the visit of Santa Claus, who was piped into the hall by Piper Richardson, who, after speaking briefly, proceeded with the business of distributing gifts and sweets from a beautifully decorated and heavily laden Christmas tree.

This was followed by the drawing by little Mary Hunter of lucky tickets in a raffle held by the lodge. The prize winners were as follows:

First, $20 gold piece — Won by Tommy Black, Commercial Hotel, with ticket No. 748.

Second, $10 gold piece, H. Parson, No. 581.

Third, $5 gold piece—F. Montesano, No. 1438.

During the evening delicious refreshments were served with Mrs. Thomas Clough, Mrs. W. E. Denning and Mrs. J. W. Durran in charge. Assisting in connection with the Christmas tree were Mrs. W. Reid, Mrs. F. J. Feasby and Mrs. A. Astori.

The committee in charge of the entertainment consisted of James Sturgeon, chairman, G. A. Hebb, Richard Ford, W. H. Sherman Jr., F. J. Feasby, William Reid, J. R. Hunter, A. Astori and L. Bremerton.

CONCERT OF ANNUNCIATION

Highly Successful Affair Last Night To Be Repeated This Evening

A large crowd attended the Christmas concert given by the children of the Annunciation School last night. The school hall was tastefully and beautifully decorated for the occasion and the children were decked out in costumes which were really charming and becoming for the different plays that were produced. The concert opened with a chorus, "Hurrah For Xmas," followed by an action song, "Chin Chin Chinaman." Then came the play, "No Room in the Inn," surrounding the birth of Christ, which held those who were present captivated and spellbound. Other playlets followed: "Happy Little Eskimo" and "Mother Goose," an action song, "You Mustn't." The concert was a great success, all the children acquitting themselves in a remarkable and admirable way of the different characterizations assigned to them. Father Hammond, O.M.I., commented briefly on the great objective, namely, to train the children, and congratulated both children and Sisters on the wonderful success they have achieved.
