RIP-SNORTING FARCE-COMEDY AT WESTHOLME

Syd Chaplin in "Skirts" is Better Than Ever and London Life Shown

A picture in which Syd Chaplin appears is invariably delightful comedy and in "Skirts," which is at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow, he excels anything he has previously done.

He is a riot. "Skirts" is an adaptation from the celebrated comedy "A Little Bit of Fluff," which had long runs both in London and New York.

The action takes place in London and an all-star English caste takes the parts. Pretty Balfour, who is known in America as the English Mary Pickford, plays the lead opposite to Chaplin and amongst other notable players in the picture is Miss Enid Stamp Taywor. Miss Taywor is regarded as one of the screen's prettiest girls and is the only screen star so far who has been rumored as engaged to the Prince of Wales.

The story is gloriously funny and depicts London night life as it really is. The scene in a night club is conceded to be one of the finest mounted shots ever filmed in a straight comedy.

Visitors to the Westholme will have the opportunity of seeing the famous Tiller troupe of high-kicking, acrobatic dancers in this picture. Tiller girls have a world-wide reputation as dancers and this particular troupe is internationally regarded as second to none.

"The Masked Menace" will be on the bill with a good "Fable" and a special program of synchronized music. Between shows Miss Cathie Eastman accompanied by Piper Alec Macdonald, will dance Scotch dances, Highland Flings, Etc., with Scottish National orchestral music. No better bill has ever been presented.

EXCEPTIONALLY BIG SHOW TONIGHT AT THE CAPITOL

Feature Picture, Zane Grey's "The Water Hole," with Jack Holt and Nancy Carroll, "Tarzan" No. 8, Scotch Comedy "Lay On McDuff," Al Smail and His Orchestra on the Stage Is Wonderful Show

With the introduction on the Capitol stage tonight and Saturday of Al Smail and his orchestra, augmented by the Rupert Capitolians, Prince Rupert music lovers will be given a rare treat, as this is one of the biggest musical presentations undertaken in the city for many months. The boys have been working hard to make this a big event in the city's musical history. "Querida" and "Sonny Boy" have been selected and will be featured in this big act which will comprise on all ten musicians.

It's a real musical treat! Don't miss it!

Something for everyone to enjoy, Zane Grey's story of "The Water Hole" as pictured by Paramount and showing for the first time in this city tonight at the Capitol Theatre.

For those who like western pictures, "The Water Hole" has some beautiful and exciting desert scenes with much riding and chase situations. For those who prefer society drama, "The Water Hole" has an absorbing plot centering around a pampered society set and scenes of magnificent entertainment in the home and lives of the wealthy.

Jack Holt, as a young engineer in love with the philandering Nancy Carroll, proves himself a versatile aand accomplished actor. In formal dress clothes or in rough riding outfit, Holt is equally at home. His technique is unassailable and his characterization, convincing.

An unusually clever "Scotch" comedy, "Lay on McDuff," featuring Jack Duffy, the popular two-reel comedian, will undoubtedly provide plenty of entertainment for those who like good Scotch comedy. Special highland music will accompany this "laugh producer."

"Tarzan," No. 8, "Fable" and "Topics of the Day," make up a great "Capitol" show.

WEEK AT THEATRES

Friday and Saturday
Capitol: "The Water Hole" with Jack Holt.
Al Smail and his orchestra.
Westholme: Syd Chaplin with Betty Balfour in "Skirts."
