Man in the Moon

Our summer came
Our summer went
It was four days
In full extent.

But though 'twas short
'Twas surely fine;
Thermometer jumped
To eighty-nine.

Bricks were not made for throwing but for building. How many people use them for that purpose?

A lot of people wanted last week's heat wave to be a permanent wave. They should remember that permanent waves cost a lot.

I wish I were a fisherman
With nothing else to do
But just let down my little hook
And get a fish or two.

I would not have to plow the land
Or sow the seed therein,
I'd simply reap my little crop
And then I'd spend the tin.

Magistrate—You are accused of stealing a chicken. Anything to say?
Prisoner—I just took it for a lark, Sir.
Magistrate—No resemblance whatever. Ten days.

Here you see a fish town
A wish town, call it what you like
Where-the-people-have-ambish town
What do you say Mike?

It's a pretty live town
A-place-to-strive town, yes sir
Working like a hive town
We can cause a stir.

Speakers oft are very dry
Tell me, can you say just why?
They drawl on and seldom stop,
Perhaps they need a drink of pop.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

August 1, 1919

Geo. A. McNicholl, assistant general freight and passenger agent for the G.T.P., T. H. Johnson, manager of the cold storage; G. W. Nickerson, and W. W. Wright, returned last night from accompanying the Vancouver Board of Trade party as far as Prince George.

Mrs. Jarvis H. McLeod and Mrs. James M. Carmcihael took their seats on the hospital board for the first time last night as representatives of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Several fishing parties have been organizing for the past few weeks to go up McNicholl Creek. The salmon are running there and the trout are biting fine.

The fire department is having a busy time this morning testing out the water pressure, as F. C. Broadfoot and H. L. Taylor are here on a visit of examination on behalf of the Mainland Underwriter's Association.

NO UNEMPLOYMENT IN ICELAND JUST NOW AS ISLAND IS PROSPEROUS

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Aug. 3:—Iceland has no unemployment problem, not because folks have to work to keep warm up there, but because Iceland is an undeveloped land of great opportunities.

The unemployed of Reykjavik totalled eight men on May 1. Six of them were more than 60 years old and in ill health. The other two said they had just left their jobs, and could get better ones.

Iceland, peopled with only 100,000 inhabitants, could comfortably find accomodation and employment for 900,000.

Iceland wants dirt farmers, not men to keep the bright lights of Reykjavik burning. The native Icelanders are good farmers, but not scientific agriculturists.

Government authorities maintain that Iceland could produce far greater quantities of agricultural products than at present, as the soil and climate are excellent for many crops.

A SLIGHT DIFFERENCE

A General died in India, and a newspaper referred to him in an obituary notice as " a bottle-scarred warrior."

This statement called forth the wrath of the late General's relatives, one of whom called on the editor and insisted on a correction appearing in the paper the next day, as the deceased had always been a strict teetotaller.

The paper next day made its attempt to placate the relatives, and referred to the General as "a battle-scared warrior!"
