FRANK TRIPUCKA, new coach of Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, looks over films of recent Saskatchewan games shortly after arriving in Edmonton October 2 to join the team. Tripucka, (centre) a former Saskatchewan star, was hired from Ottawa Rough Riders of the Big Four to replace George Terlep, fired earlier in the week. After looking at the films with assistant coaches Bob Maddock (right) and Carl Schuette, he settled down to the job of pulling Riders out of a nine-game losing streak.
