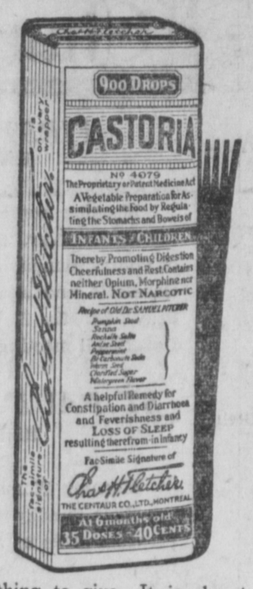
When Babies CRY



Babies will cry, often for no apparent reason. You may not know what's wrong, but you can always give Castoria. This soon has your little one comforted; if not, you should call a doctor. Don't experiment with medicines intended for the stronger systems of adults! Most of those little upsets are soon soothed away by a little of this pleasant-tasting, gentle-acting children's remedy that children like.

It may be the stomach, or may be the little bowels. Or in the case of older children, a sluggish, constipated condition. Castoria is still the thing to give. It is almost certain to clear up any minor ailment, and could by no possibility do the youngest child the slightest harm. So it's the first thing to think of when a child has a coated tongue; won't play, can't sleep, is fretful or out of sorts. Get the genuine; it always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the package.

Hair that sparkles!

No one can deny the importance of having the hair arranged in the style best suited to the individual type. Much of the effect is lost, however, unless the hair is kept soft, abundant, lustrous.

A million busy women and girls know the easiest way to keep the hair in perfect condition is with Danderine. The first application will show you how marvelously it removes excess oil from the hair; cleanses it; makes it sparkle with new life and lustre. It's so simple to use Danderine. All you do is put a little on your brush each time you arrange your hair! The consistent use of Danderine will dissolve the worst crust of dandruff; soothe, heal the scalp; stimulate the growth of long, silky abundant hair.

Danderine isn't sticky or oily; doesn't show. It makes the hair easy to manage; holds it in place for hours. "Set" your waves with it and see how much longer they stay in.

SMOKER SUCCESS

Snappy Boxing Bouts Feature of Elks' Entertainment Thursday Night

The Elks' Old Time Smoker on Thursday night went over with a bang. Some 250 men were in attendance and there wasn't a dull moment during the entire evening's entertainment. F. Stephens, exalted ruler, was master of ceremonies.

The program opened with "O Canada" being played by Balagno's orchestra. The Harmony Herd put on several numbers during the evening, Sam Joy leading the chorus with some fancy dancing. Johnson Smith sang "Sonny Boy," which was much appreciated. Alex Mitchell and Joe Scott, with their ukeleles, favored with a couple of snappy turns. Mitchell Bros. and Scott quartet sang to "uke" accompaniment. Fred Stephens put on a good club swinging turn. A banjo solo by Hawthorne Dunn brought the musical end of the program to a close.

The orchestra played several popular songs during the evening which the audience sang with great gusto.

At 11 o'clock Exalted Ruler Fred Stephens delivered the usual Elk ceremony which was followed by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

The two comic boxing events of the evening caused a great deal of merriment to the spectators, even if they left the participants with a few black and blue spots and the odd busted nose. Bill Lambie and Bill Mitchell opened the barrel fight in which Lambie won a close decision. Doug Frizzell was an easy victom for Stone who won three out of four falls. He then won the championship over Lambie in a convincing manner. The blindfold match in which Stan Moran, Jimmy Farquhar, George Mitchell and Bill Harold engaged was full of action. The bell saved Mitchell after Moran had planted a haymaker behind his ear. Bill Lambie, who was referee got tangled up in the second round and Moran socked him and ended the fight.

Roy Barnes managed the boxing bouts. He introduced Benny Wendle who is to fight Henry Deeth of Anyox on May 2 in the city. Tod Morgan and Newsboy Hardy fought three fast rounds in the curtain-raiser. Frankie Neal, in his first appearance in a local ring, showed a little too much class for Eddie Smith in the deuce-spot. The semi-windup between Nine Gurvich and Benny Wendle was the best match on the card with both boys mixing it freely. The final between Dido Gurvich and Herman Loblick developed into a case of Dido trying to wear out the big pitcher's arm by pounding it so that he wouldn't be able to pitch for the Single Elks in the baseball game with the Benedicts the next day, but evidently it was just what Loblick wanted.

Tom Clough announced that the Eagles were having a smoker soon and challenged the Elks to a ball game of men 40 years and over, which was quickly accepted.

During the evening refreshments were served and corncobs and clay pipes and tobacco were given to all present. The affair lasted from 9 p.m. until nearly 1 a.m.

Single Elks Defeat Married Brothers 11 to 2 In Opening Baseball Game of Season Here

They can't come back! This was proven in a decisive manner yesterday afternoon when the Single Elks put the Indian sign on their married brothers to the tune of 11-2, in the opening baseball game of the season here. Brick Skinner did the heaving for the Benedicts and got along fine until the seventh when he weakened and six runs trickled across the plate. Benny Wendle then took up the burden and managed to finish the contest. Herman Loblick did mound duty for the winners up to the seventh and then Bill Lambie went in to finish the contest.

The Single Men collected 10 hits and four of them were triples by Loblick, A. Mitchell, Lambie and Harold. For the losers Wendle and Ratchford did the best hitting.

Up to the seventh it looked like anybody's game with the Single Men leading 2-0. Spiro Gurvich hit to right field. Gurvich was out at second on Harold's drive to Farquhar. G. Mitchell singled and then W. Mitchell rolled one down the first base line to Stephens who picked it up but failed to touch him. Both runners scored. Loblick poled out a triple to left and scored on Lambie's single. A. Mitchell tripled to left and then Wendle went into the box. He made a wild pitch and Mitchell scored. Frizzell was safe on an infield error and Stone fanned. S. Gurvich drew a pass for his second time up during the inning, but Harold ended the inning by grounding out to Wendle.

They got two more in the eighth and one in the ninth. Bill Harold made a nice hit in the ninth but was caught at the plate.

Benedicts' Runs

The Married Men got both their runs in the eighth. Wendle hit to left and by fast runing stretched it for a double. Stephens rolled one to George Mitchell who fumbled it and Wendle scored on the play. Stephens stole second and Arseneau popped one out to left field which Stone caught. Dido Gurvich hit to centre for a double but was caught trying to make third on it. Skinner hit to right but Ratchford ended the inning by striking out.
