NORTHERN B. C. NEWS

TERRACE

Mrs. George Dover, accompanied by her daughter, Betty, and her son, George, arrived home on Sunday from Atwood, Ont., where they have been visiting relatives during the past three months.

Dr. and Mrs. Mills visited Prince Rupert at the week-end. The doctor attended a medical convention.

Miss H. T. Allen left for Prince Rupert Sunday with her little son, Richard, who had suddenly taken ill. Mrs. J. H. Smith accompanied her.

Mrs. E. A. Macarthy has kindly offered to open her home on Tuesday evenings to any pupils desiring instruction in the French language. She held such a class while in the Peace River country prior to coming to Terrace.

Oscar Landry, district superintendent of Government Telegraphs, visited Terrace over the week-end on official business.

Mrs. R. L. McIntosh returned to her Prince Rupert home Saturday after spending the summer at the "Crossways," her summer home. Mr. McIntosh will remain at Terrace for a short time longer.

Harvest Home service was held in the Anglican Church Sunday morning. The church was suitably decorated with flowers, fruits and vegetables. The Sacrament was partaken of by the members at the close of the regular service. Rev. E. A. Macarthy officiated.

Harvest Home service will be held in the United Church next Sunday, Special music will be a feature of the service.

The following Terrace citizens left Wednesday for Hazelton to attend the Conservative convention: Jim Nelson, John Hepburn, Robt. Corlett, O. T. Sundal, Will Robinson, Thos. Turner and Mrs. Wilkinson of Remo.

H. L. Cullin of the Taylor Safe Co. of Vancouver, is a business visitor in town and is registered at the Tourist Hotel.

Louis Martin, proprietor of the Tourist Hotel, is busy laying the foundation for the installation of a Delco plant for lighting his hotel.

Henry Smith and his sister Frances, former residents of Terrace and now of Smithers, are registered at the Terrace Hotel.

E. K. Weymouth and family of Burns Lake were recent arrivals in Terrace and have rented the Gillis house north of town from the owner, E. T. Kenney.

A. E. Goodenough of Smithers is a business visitor in town and is registered at the Terrace Hotel.

F. M. Dockrill of Telkwa, who is connected with the Telkwa Coal Mine, is a business visitor in Terrace and is registered at the Terrace Hotel.

A. H. Waddington of the Prince Rupert Forest Branch arrived in Terrace Tuesday on official business.

D. L. McNeill, who has been ill for some time is now convalescing and able to be out doors enjoying the warm sunshine with which Terrace is at present being favored.

Chas. R. Gilbert of Terrace left for Vanderhoof Monday on official business as fire insprance adjuster.

Howard W. Archibald of Victoria, who has been spending the past week at Lakelse Lodge, left Wednesday for Kamloops.

Frank Phiscator is giving the Terrace Hotel a fresh coat of paint, and seems quite at home on the scaffold, 30 feet above the sidewalk. Frank says he doesn't bother coming down for lunch after having a breakfast of bear steak served up by Norman Yack.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Durrant and little daughter of Winnipeg have been guests at the Terrace Hotel during the past week and it is understood will take up residence here for the winter if they can secure a suitable house.

The Canadian Legion Hall has been engaged by the hospital board for a dance on Friday, by the board of trade for a Hallowe'en dance on Friday, October 31, and the Vets themselves will hold an Armistice dance on Tuesday, November 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson are holding Gospel meetings in the Blue Room of the Vet's Hall every night in the week except Monday.

Mrs. Bruce Johnson and neice, Miss Higgerity of Lakelse Lodge were guests at the Terrace Hotel Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

SMITHERS

H. B. Rochester of Prince Rupert spent a few days at the first of last week visiting here with J. C. K. Sealy.

With winter approaching, the town council is considering the possibility of completing the fire hall here and providing sleeping quarters for the firemen therein.

The village council has passed a bylaw under which all vehicular traffic must pull to the side of the road and stop when the fire truck is running to a fire.

The Smithers town band has been given permission by the town council to use the municipal hall for practices.

To aid the unemployment problem in the fall and winter months, the town council of Smithers is making a request to the provincial government for a share of the money apportioned to this province for financing such work.

B. A. Smith, road superintendent for the west end of Omineca district, is fitting up the old Burns Lake hardware store at Burns Lake and has made application to Victoria for a beer licence.

HAZELTON

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kincaid left Hazelton last Monday for Ashcroft where Mr. Kincaid will take over the management of the Government Telegraphs. He had been manager in Hazelton for the past few years.

The steamboat trip between Hazelton and Prince Rupert is being advocated here as a possible tourist attraction. It is nearly twenty years since boats have been operated on the river.

Dr. H. C. Wrinch, M. L. A. for Skeena, has written to Premier S. F. Tolmie advocating that clearing of right-of-way and rock work be carried out on roads in this district as unemployment relief work. There is much of this work that might be done on the Prince Rupert highway route between Hazelton and Usk, the local member points out.

It is now expected that the new Hazelton hospital will be ready for occupation by December 1, if not earlier. Plastering is now completed and steam fitters are about to start installation of the heating system. Soon the decorators will be able to get started.

Mrs. F. A. Goddard returned home last Monday evening after having spent a few weeks visiting in Stewart with her daughter, Mrs. E. McMullin.

William Gow, station agent at South Hazelton, who is now on a trip into the Peace River country, is having good hunting there, it is reported.

Snow has not yet arrived permanently on the mountains hereabouts. One day there is plenty of it and the next day it has disappeared.

Mr. Gwyer, representing Seattle capital, has undertaken a development program on the Cordellira property at Usk. It is a promising gold property.

There are quite a few moose around here as well as further into the interior. One day recently a train nearly hit two moose at Mud Creek, a short distance east of here.

PRINCE GEORGE

The management of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway is said to be considering making use of five hundred tons of steel in this city for a five mile diversion of the railway in the vicinity of Lillooet which also provides for a new bridge crossing of the Fraser River to replace the structure which has run its allotted life.
