Union steamer Catala, Capt. A. E. Dickson, delayed by tie in making Naas River calls, arrived in port at 2.45 this afternoon from Anyox. Stewart and other northern points and is scheduled to sail at 3.30. p.m. for Vancouver and way-points.

On the reading of a letter form H. A. Breen, secretary of the celebration committee, the city council decided last night to grant the use of Acropolis Hill Grounds on July 1 to the Sons of Canada for use in connection with the annual Dominion Day celebration.

Tenders for City Hall kalsomining were not opened at last night's council meeting but it was decided to call for new bids after Ald. Brown had explained that the original specifications were somewhat ambiguous, not setting forth clearly the exact work that was to be done.

In connection with a fire which occurred aboard the halibut boat Nuba on the local waterfront yesterday morning it is explained that a match was thrown into a bucket by one of the members of the crew just before the explosion. The skipper, Gus Slaney, was not aboard at the time.

Fire Chief D. H. Macdonald reported to the city council last night, during the month of May, his department had responded to a total of ten alarms, fire damage for the month being placed at $20, covered by insurance. Equipment of the department had been inspected and found to be in good order, the report stated.

A recommendation from the utilities committee that the tender of Fraser & Payne of $37.50 each for the supplying of seven uniforms for the members of the fire department be accepted was adopted by the city council last night. Ald. Macdonald, chairman of the utilities committee, explained that seven firms had submitted bids ranging from $35 to $45 and Fraser & Payne's tender had been considered the best value.

Making her first voyage of the season on the Alaska run, C.N.R. steamer Prince George, Capt. Neil McLean, is due in port from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls at 11.30 tomorrow morning and will sail at 2.30 in the afternoon for Skagway, returning here at 7 o'clock Monday morning and sailing south at 4 p.m. that day. The Prince George and Prince Rupert will operate opposite each other on a weekly schedule to Alaska and, on July 5, the Prince Henry will be here on her first voyage northbound to Skagway.
