AXE MAY FALL ON N. H. A. STARS

Newsy Lalonde seems to be in bad down in Montreal. The failure of the high-priced Canadian team to deliver has got the fans and the club executive going, and of course Newsy has to bear the brunt of it. The Montreal Herald in a recent issue had this to say: "Canadiens go to Quebec. If Canadiens don't make a better showing in Quebec than they have made at home and away recently—watch the axe fall. Didier Pitre, declares the management of the Canadiens, will be due for a suspension unless he can show something more than he has been producing lately, and the same remark applies to 'Newsy' Lalonde. Neither player has been up to form of late, and the executive of the Canadiens are inclined to attribute their decline to breaches of the rules of training. Both will have to show something to-night. The pair are believed to be the highest salaried players in the National Hockey Association, but playing to their recent form the Canadian executive claim that they have men sitting on the bench who can show just as much in the way of hockey."

An answer is expected from Ritchie today.

The fight would be pulled off in San Francisco and would be over the 20-round route. If secured a special arena would probably be constructed.

TOM JONES WANTS TO MANAGE BUD ANDERSON

Both Wolgast and Cherokee Tom Look Upon Him as Coming Champion. Portland, Ore., March 6—A tribute to the prowess of Bud Anderson, the Vancouver, Wash., lightweight, has been paid by Tom Jones, manager of Ad Wolgast and Billy Papke, ex-champions, and of ring exponents galore, who would like to pilot the Northwestern lightweight to the top of the 133-pound division. Jones approached Jack King of Portland with an offer of $500 and transportation to Los Angeles if Jack would use his influence in securing Bud's signature to a Jones managerial contract. King declined to interfere in Anderson's affairs, as Dick Donald, Bud's manager ever since the Vancouver boy needed a representative, is a warm personal friend of the Portland man. However, Jones' activity, together with that of Ad Wolgast while the Cadillac youth was in Portland several weeks ago, indicates that both consider Anderson a prospective champion who is destined to earn money for himself and manager. Wolgast had not been in Portland three days when he commenced to talk about Anderson and the chances of landing him in conjunction with Tom Jones, and when Bud knocked out Sammy Trott in six rounds Ad requested King to telegraph Bud to come to Portland to talk business. King refused to mix in the affairs at that time, and negotiations were not opened. Ad preferring to wait until he or Jones could have a personal talk with Anderson.

CANADIAN POLOISTS LOSE TO HAWAIIANS

San Diego, Cal., March 6.—The eighth annual polo tournament of the Coronado Country Club is in full swing today, having started yesterday afternoon with the all-Hawaiian team defeating the Canadian four, 11-2 to 3-3-4. That match was the first one drawn for play for the California challenge trophy, the first of five cups to be played for during the tournament. It also was the first time the entire Hawaiian team had been seen in action. It was an exciting, fast game, and several players were unhorsed. The next game will be played tomorrow, with Coronado and Pasadena opposing.

JIM THORPE HAS HIS BATTING EYE

Dallas, Texas, March 6—Two singles and a double by Jim Thorpe featured the game between the New York Giants and the Dallas team of the Texas League here yesterday. Batteries—Mullin, Harrah and Foster; Goulet, Smith and Hartley. Umpire—Torrey.

HARRY SUTER WILL NOT BE WITH COLTS

Portland, Ore., March 6.—Pitcher Harry Suter has today announced his retirement from the national game, and the Portland Northwesterners will have to do without the services of the southpaw who did time with the Chicago White Sox, San Francisco Seals and Portland Beavers. Suter, who for several months has been travelling for a coffee house, stated that business was too good for him to think of signing a contract to pitch ball this season. Suter was turned over to Nick Williams by the Portland Beavers.
