Pheasants Are Nuisance Now On Q. C. Islands

SKIDEGATE, Nov. 20:—Chinese pheasants are proving to be almost a pest on the Queen Charlotte Islands on all parts of which they are now to be seen. They destroy crops and even fruit and fruit trees and a good many people on the islands are beginning to wonder why it is that the game department still protects them.

New Helmet

Here comes the bogey man! It'll be all right if they confine these masks to the grid-iron. But not so nice in a back alley on a dark night
