BIG DANCE ENJOYABLE

Large Crowd Present in Eagles' Hall Last Night at Affair Staged by Vic Rogers

Vic Rogers' benefit dance and vaudeville show last night was a great success. At 10 P.m. dancing started and within a few minutes the Eagles' Hall, where the event took place, was crowded.

The vaudeville acts given during the dance program proved excellent and were well received. Bud Baldwin, lumberjack baritone, proved especially popular and was called back several times to repeat his performance. Harry Astori and Joe Arseneau were at their best and the crowd roared at their lively sketch as a quarreling Italian couple. Sam Joy proved a speedy buck and wing dancer and was given an excellent reception.

Vic Rogers himself was master of ceremonies and he showed his appreciation of the crowded hall by singing his own compositions, "The Ragtime Porter From Saskatchewan" and "The Rheumatism Blues."

Charles P. Balagno and his orchestra, augmented by Joe Arseneau on the banjo, clarionet and drums, provided dance music which was second to none. Even when the Home Waltz was played at 2 a.m., the young people were loath to leave. The singing of God Save the King" brought a perfect evening to a close.

Manitoba Honey Replaces Syrup

Prairie Province Sets Example in Patronizing Home Industry in Government Institutions

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31:—Manitoba honey will replace imported syrups on the bills of fare of all provincial institutions, Premier John Bracken has announced. In the past, syrups have been used in large quantities in provincial institutions because of their cheapness, but at the low prices for which honey now is selling there is but little spread between it and corn syrup.

Dr. Montgomery, in endorsing the substitution of honey for syrup, said that honey from a health standpoint is preferable to manufactured syrups, "being both more nutritious and more digestible." He also observed that because it is much more concentrated sweet, honey is more economical as a food product. Premier Bracken pointed out that government institutions in the past have used 30 tons of syrup and similar sweet foods, and that sufficient honey would be bought to replace these imported sweets.

FRANK NEEL GOING BIG

Held Big Yakima Boy to Draw in Recent Bout

Frankie Neel, the little Victoria featherweight formerly of Prince Rupert, made a big hit at Yakima, Wash., recently when he held Johnny Woods of that city to a six-round draw. Woods had a weight advantage of 12 pounds and was a strong favorite to win over Neel. This was Neel's first appearance in the State against a boy of Woods' calibre.

Frankie got his chance in the big time at Tacoma, Wash., on October 29 when he met Harry Ketchell in the semi-final of the Richard-Sawyer fight.

Neel is a very pleasing boxer and is rapidly developing a punch in either hand. He has been working out with some of the best boys on the coast at a Tacoma gymnasium. He is signed up for several fights in Washington and Oregon in the near future and is also scheduled to make a trip to California next spring. In this trip he will accompany Pete Cerkan the PeEll, Wash., lightheavyweight, who has been a sensation on the Pacific Coast.
