TRYING FOR OLYMPICS

Spartan Athletic Club Makes Plans For Season's Activities

There was a well-attended meeting of the Spartan Athletic Club at the City Hall last evening. The chief business of the meeting was to make final arrangements for a tryout in August in preparation for the Junior Olympic meet to be held in Vancouver on August 29. Within the next week it is expected that the minimum standards for the meet will be published. The club will have to hold a meet here during the first two weeks of August to qualify under these standards. It was decided to hold a meet here on the afternoon of Thursday, August 4.

Several local men, including Staff-Sergeant McNeill, W. D. Vance, Ald. S. D. Macdonald, Ald. G. W. Rudderham, Ald. J. Black, J. Campbell and F. Derry, will be asked to supervise the meet.

The club was asked to make arrangements for the track events to be held on July 1. A committee headed by Archie Thompson was named to prepare the grounds and to make all other arrangements for starting and timing the events.

The secretary was instructed to write to the Y. P. E. A. of Port Simpson urging it to enter the races and, in particular, to enter a relay team. It a team is entered from Port Simpson or elsewhere, the Spartan team will be Carl Smith, Alex Walters, Phil. Edgecumbe and one of the following: Bill Vance, Suehiro or P. Vaccher. The final choice of this team will be made on Monday, June 27. If, however, no outside entries take part, the club will field two well-matched teams from its own membership. The following teams were tentatively chosen: Walters, Vance, Suehiro, Vaccher; and Smith, Edgecumbe, Bartlett, L. Wilson.

G. A. Bryant gave the members of the Rotary Club a talk on Khatda Lake angling at the regular weekly luncheon of the club today. H. E. DeWolf occupied the chair in the absence of G. H. Munro, the president.

WAS BAD DECISION

No One Agrees With Sharkey Verdict—Sports Writers Caustic in Remarks—To Be Reviewed

NEW YORK, June 23:—Sports writers who sat in on the Sharkey-Shemeling garden party on Tuesday night when the Boston gob was awarded the German's heavyweight boxing crown called the decision in favor of the American anything but the fair finding. Some described it as a "patriotic gesture" while by others it was termed "another example of American sportsmanship," "fantastic" and "incredible."

The New York Boxing Commission yesterday announced its intention of reviewing the decision of the judges and referee which was two to one for Sharkey on a fight in which it is generally admitted that Schmeling should have been awarded the call on a comfortable margin of points. There was no indication, however, that the decision would be reversed.

The heart-broken Schmeling is preparing to sail for home as his manager, Joe Jacobs, raises the indignant cry of "robbery."

DAY WAS OBSERVED

Hospital Day Celebrated Last Week at Hazelton Hospital

HAZELTON, June 23:—Clear blue skies and brilliant sunshine favored the annual hospital day celebration of the Hazelton Hospital on Tuesday of last week. Early in the day cars and wagons from all over the district began to arrive in town and, by 2:45 p.m., the scheduled hour of opening, a large crowd had gathered in the Hospital Park.

It was a great get-together occasion.

An energetic committee, consisting of J. Cox, Harold Wrinch and J. Rukin ran off a full program of sports for the children, assisted by Vern Hawken and Bill Lloyd who, in the role of clown, created just the right atmosphere of merriment and fun, much to the enjoyment of the kiddies.

A feature of the afternoon was an interesting baby reception at which the babies who made their arrival at the hospital during the year were present with their mothers, each receiving a little token from the hands of Mrs. Allen Benson.

At 5 o'clock the big institution was thrown open for visitors and the crowd thronged the spacious corridors, inspecting the modern and up-to-date equipment. Mrs. T. B. Campbell, Mrs. Chappell and Mrs. Sawle comprised the reception committee. Tea was served in the nurses' dining hall and balconies.

Many were the expressions of delight at the facilities available as the splendid work of Dr. H. C. Wrinch, the medical superintendent, and his staff.

Festivities were continued in the evening in the Kitanmax Hall when the graduation exercises were held for the graduating class of 1932. Miss Francis Willan of New Hazelton and Miss Bertha Orr of Burns Lake. W. W. Anderson of the hospital board occupied the chair. With him on the platform were Dr. H. C. Wrinch, M.L.A., and Rev. D. Donaldson of Smithers. Mr. Anderson, in his remarks, voiced the appreciation of the board for the work that had been done and congratulated the members of the class graduating. An enjoyable program of music followed, contributed by Rev. and Mrs. S. V. H. Redman and Miss Jean Burns. Rev. David Donaldson followed with an address of inspiration and encouragement, making reference to the great opportunities of ministration afforded by the profession of nursing.

Following the graduation address Miss E. Craig R.N., superintendent of the training school of the Hazelton Hospital, was called to the platform by Dr. Wrinch. She was followed by the graduating class. Miss Craig administered the pledge of the profession after which Rev. D. Donaldson presented each graduate with a diploma, Miss Craig presenting the class pin.

Much satisfaction was expressed at the high standing both Miss Willan and Miss Orr attained in the examination set by the provincial board.

Following the graduation exercises, dancing was enjoyed under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary to the hospital.
