Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

CALIFORNIA VEGETABLES

Imported Supplies Taking Place of British Columbia Stock—Jap Orange Season Near Over

A number of lines of British Columbia vegetables are being replaced now by stocks from California at considerably higher prices. Among the vegetables so changed in source of supply are celery and cauliflower.

Japanese oranges have moved out fairly well this winter. With the season for this popular fruit nearly over, some local merchants have dropped the price to $1 per box. The average price for Japanese oranges this year has been higher than last.

Owing to the season, the market in many retail lines consists largely of staple goods. There has been a drop recently in the price of eggs. Sugar is weak and butter and flour are steady.
