HANGED HIMSELF WHILE ASLEEP

Strange Suicide of a Somnambulist in England

London, March 8.—A fine muscular young fellow, 'fond of life,' as his grieving mother describes him, committed suicide in his sleep. The remarkable case has been reported from Doncaster.

Perhaps he awoke too late to release himself from the twisted cloth that choked off his life. If he struggled, his mother, sleeping nearby, was not awakened. When she went to arouse him in the morning she found him dead.

Medical evidence at the inquest showed that a sleeper may unknowingly to himself commit a crime against another than himself. The case was cited of a lifelong somnambulist in Washington, D.C. One night in 1908 he dreamed a burglar was in his room. He arose in his sleep, got his pistol and shot and instantly killed his wife as she lay asleep in bed.

Chicago Merchant Acts Quickly Following Vice Commission Hearing.

Chicago, March 10.—The work of the Illinois Senate vice commission bore fruit today when a letter was received by Chairman Barratt O'Hara from E. F. Mandel, president of Mandel Brothers, who was a witness yesterday, stating that he had raised the minimum wage of juveniles to $4 a week.

Edward Hillman, of Hillman's, a big department store, was a jovial and frank witness of the forenoon, who greeted the proposition of an investigator with enthusiasm and promised to hire one or more at once.

AUSTRALIANS DON'T LIKE COAST RUGBY

Team Which Played in California Much Peevish Over Treatment on Tour

San Francisco, March 8.—Australians do not seem to care for the way rugby football is played on the Pacific coast. Extracts have been received here of a report made by Dr. Otto Bohrsman, manager of the Australian Waratah team, covering the team's tour of the coast.

"Rules regarding the replacing of players are entirely ignored," the report says. "The contestants are so imbued with the fact that their side must win that they prepare most assiduously. Training with them is a religion. It has been stated on reliable authority that the record number which has represented one side in a match is ninety-one; that is, over six different teams have participated as one combination.

"This irregular substitution caused much embarrassment to us. In one game we were beaten by one point, the opposing half-back and wing three quarters were replaced within twenty minutes of 'no side,' after other substitutes had been furnished at half time. Naturally, the well-trained, fresh players at such a critical period turned the scale in favor of the home team."

VENEZUELO TOO BUSY FOR A REVOLUTION

Country Booming and Castro Has No Followers, Returning Traveller Asserts.

New York, March 8.—Lemuel C. Butler, president of the Caribbean Coal Company, Wall street, back from Venezuela, said that there was no foundation for the statements published in the New York newspapers that Castro was organizing a revolution to overthrow the Gomez government.

"Venezuela is developing an era of prosperity," said Mr. Butler, "and the people are all making money. They are too busy to waste time on a revolution which would disturb the present peace and prosperity of the land. Castro no longer figures in Venezuelan politics and in the time I was in Caracas I never heard his name mentioned. The revolutions of the South American republics are magnified in newspapers. I witnessed three of the so-called revolutions in Venezuela sixteen and twenty years ago and they did not make as much trouble rolled into one as the strike in Lawrence, Mass., did.

"Caracas is quiet and business is booming. The people have got a good government and are satisfied. I speak Spanish fluently and I made it my business to visit the hotels, cafes and clubs before departing to see if there was any truth in the reports in the New York newspapers.

"I did not hear any allusion to expected trouble in any way. The Gomez government will be changed in another year, and I believe it will be succeeded by an administration that will carry out the plans for developing the commerce and prosperity of the country inaugurated by the present regime.

In future, all the beef will be shipped to Porphyria Creek alive and driven from there on to the different camps.
