BUY IN CENTRAL B. C.

Discussion at the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations in the city shows that everyone is favorable to buying so far as possible from Northern British Columbia producers. The difficulty at Christmas seems to have been that there was a steadily falling market and the farmers did not seem to realize it. However, a great deal of poultry was taken from the interior producers, especially from Palling where the Farmers' Institute seems to be very active.

Good progress is being made in bringing the grower and the merchant close together but much could yet be done. It seems as if there should be an organization in the interior that would keep a paid representative in Prince Rupert to look after the interests of the interior farmers.

CO-OPERATION OF DOMINION

The Manitoba government has secured the co-operation of the Dominion government in taking care of payments to be made in New York by the province this week. The amount in that province is two million dollars.

To Manitoba that two million is not any larger than the bonds which Prince Rupert has had to meet in New York costing the city so far over ten thousand dollars in exchange. That will mean a large extra charge against the city and if the Dominion is relieving the provinces it seems reasonable that they should relieve the cities.

Prince Rupert needs that money badly, just as badly as the province of Manitoba. It is a charge that has come against the city through no fault of her own and along with the reduction of provincial support next year will make local financing difficult.

A LARGE CONGREGATION

It is the fashion in certain quarters to belittle the local newspapers and to make light of the work they are doing. While it is not the intention to defend them against the thoughtless it might be interesting to point out that a town the size of Prince Rupert in Eastern Canada or United States would have probably one weekly paper handling almost exclusively local news. Here an attempt is made to publish two dailies and give a summary of world news as well as local happenings.

Primarily the newspapers are purveyors of news and opinions expressed through the editorial column are only secondary. If the opinions were of primary importance they would be on the front page.

Yet many people like to read the opinion of the editor, even though not agreeing therewith. That is why the opinions are published.

A few years ago attention was drawn to the size of the Daily News congregation and it was suggested that a clergyman considered three hundred a very large one. The two thousand copies of the Daily News are read daily by approximately ten thousand people whereas the preacher speaks weekly to a few hundred only. However, the reader has the advantage over the listener in church in that if he does not like what he reads, instead of sitting in the pew bored to death, he turns to some other page or throws the sheet down.

To write daily for ten thousand readers is quite a responsibility. It is a critical audience and is quick to detect flaws in the argument or sham rhetoric if it should be attempted. It is a heterogenious congregation. Some curse as they read. Others smile and others again are pleased. Just a few now and then grip the editor by the hand and compliment on something he has said, but mostly the applause is lost in the distance and the voices of dissent also go out on the empty evening air.

The majority of letters of dissent come from those who would wish to change the whole economic structure and who accuse the editor of trying to perpetuate a dying system. This is of course, far from the case. He seldom thinks of the system but deals with facts as they appear from day to day. Those who expect propaganda must look for it elsewhere.

Some read political bias into everything that is published. They are the hardshell Tories or the hardshell Liberals, neither of whom are considered when writing. The person whose mind is closed to everything except his pet theory of government does not care about anything else and it is useless to appeal to him, whether it be a member of one of the constitutional parties or of the red revolutionists.

An effort will be made to discuss current questions on their merits irrespective of these outside influences. If we are right more than half the time we shall feel that we have succeeded. If we are wrong more than half the time, we shall have failed.

Casey Is Out With a Policy

Will Propose Resolution Dealing With Use of Silver If Elected to City Council

George Casey, who is offering his services to the city as a member of the council has a plan for bringing forward the greater use of silver and will, if elected, introduce a resolution dealing with it at an early date as follows:

Whereas the great masses of humanity throughout the world today are staggering under the pressure of bankruptcy and starvation, and

Whereas our local community, provinces and Dominion are no exception in the great collapse,

Therefore, be it resolved by this body, the city council that we endorse and forward a copy of the following resolution to the Hon. R. B. Bennett, Premier of Canada, The Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, The Hon. Mackenzie King, Leader of the Opposition, Olof Hanson M.P., our local member, Mr. J. S. Woodsworth M.P., of Winniueg, and,

Be it further resolved that a copy of the following be forwarded to all the principal city councils and community leagues, reaching from Stewart, B.C. to Winnipeg, embracing all four western provinces asking that they endorse at least in principle our resolution and forward same to Ottawa on behalf of our common interest.

Resolution

To the Hon. R. B. Benentt, Premier of Canada:

Whereas the restoration of values in commodities must precede the effective use of credit and world recovery, and

Whereas some dynamic price raising power is needed that will act internally without increasing debts, and

Whereas we, the citizens of Canada are blessed by nature's gift in being in possession of two metals, namely gold and silver enimently suitable for use as money, and

Whereas nature has indicated their relative value by normal natural yield of about 15 ounces of silver to one ounce of gold, and

Whereas the present unbalanced ratio in exchange is about seventy to one

Therefore, be it resolved by this body, Prince Rupert City Council, we earnestly beseech your government to give rapid and earnest consideration to the matter of adopting both metals namely, silver and gold as money, fixed on a natural yield ratio.

REPORT ON BUYING IN BULKLEY V.

Committee of Chamber of Commerce Investigates Conditions of Marketing

Following an investigation into the marketing of poultry during Christmas in Prince Rupert, particularly in connection with a request that consideration be given the Bulkley Valley producers, J. D. Fraser, for a committee to the Chamber of Commerce, reported as follows:

"For your information in your reply to a communication from Mr. S. S. Phillips, chairman Agricultural Bureau, Smithers Chamber of Commerce, dated December 18, 1931, regarding the sale of poultry to Prince Rupert dealers by the Palling Farmers' Institute, our committee have pleasure in submitting the following:

"One fairly large dealer here has been buying quite a quantity of poultry from the institute since its inception until the month of December; but during that month and up to the present, owing to the quantity of turkey thrown on the market and at such a reasonable price, the demand for poultry has practically disappeared for the present. A further reason advanced by that dealer for his buying elsewhere for the limited demand he did have was that sudden change to cold weather caused the birds to come in frozen and consequently of a dark, unattractive color. As a result he found it necessary to fill his limited requirements from local wholesale house which were only chilled, not frozen. Regarding the price drop this party informed us that while he had been paying 28c per pound at loading point for poultry in the Bulkley Valley, they were now able to procure at local wholesale delivered at 22c.

A dealer here informed us that in an attempt to secure his total supply of turkeys for the Chirstmas trade in the Bulkley Valley he wrote all the breeders he knew of.

For his replies he only received four letters with a promise of only 38 birds; he then filled his estimated requirements from local wholesale dealers.

Imagine his surprise when without any advice 487 turkeys were landed in on him.

By strenuous efforts the party was able to clean up on the entire consignment as well as those bought locally, but not until they disposed of a considerable number to the Union S. S. Co. and the C. P. R. Co. and, of course, at a price in competition with Vancouver wholesale dealers.

Attached you will find a letter from R. E. Moore, manager locally for P Burns & Co., which is self explanatory.

Yours truly, J. D. FRASER,
Retail Trader Committee, Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce.
