Children's Party Is Enjoyed By Cambrai Girls

An entirely novel April Fool Party was held last evening by the members of Cambrai Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, at the home of the president, Mrs. G. W. Laidler, when twenty-one girls became children for the evening, wearing children's clothes and playing children's games.

During the course of the evening, flash-light pictures of the group were taken. At 11 o'clock delicious refreshments suitable for children were served.

The proceeds of the party will be used in the work of the Chapter.

Moose Dance is Enjoyable Event

One hundred and fifty persons were in attendance at a very successful and enjoyable dance staged last night by the Moose Lodge in the Lodge Hall. Excellent music for dancing was furnished by Mrs. J. S. Black's orchestra. William McCallum was a genial master of ceremonies and distribution of confetti and novelties lent much to the jollity of the occasion. At midnight delicious refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Ole Stegavig and Mrs. Peter Wingham. Dancing commenced at 9:30 p.m. and concluded at 1:30 a.m.

Charles Lemon was chairman of the committee in charge and Jack Wyatt presided at the door.

A SATURDAY SERMON

Growing A Soul

(By Rev. F. W. Dafoe D.D., First Baptist Church)

Souls are like babies; they are born but they must grow. If they do not grow, they die. In this world there can be no such thing as "stagnant life." That is only a polite name for death. Life of all kinds in God's universe is so created that, when growth stops, decay inevitably begins. This is not only natural law in the deepest sense. It is spiritual law also. Both in the natural and spiritual spheres, it is not enough to be born. We must "grow up" into the full self-conscious state of adult life. All the tragedies of both spheres are concerned with those who do not grow up! Is there anything so pathetic as an undeveloped brain and body, a dwarf Yes there is something worse, infinitely worse—that type of Christian who claims to be "born again" and yet all through life remains undeveloped and stunted, one who has not grown into full Christian vigor and liberty. It is not saying too much to call attention to the fact that the church is greatly hindered today by undeveloped spiritual babies.

Christianity is a growth, a development, a way of life, a road, a spiritual attainment that never stops until we meet God face to face. Perhaps it does not stop then for, whatever our promised heaven is, it is certainly a state of being where we shall face the infinite knowledge and perfection of God. "Then shall we know even as also we are fully known." Perfection even in heaven cannot be static, but dynamic. "This is the will of God that you should be conformed to the image of His Son." We are commanded to "Grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ" He that hath an ear to hear let him hear.

Does the road wind up hill all the way?
Yes, to the end.
Will the day's journey take the whole long day?
From morn till night, my friend.
