Archgrip SHOES by BLACHFORD

You'll "forget your feet" in these ideal modern shoes

Footnote—
Unlike many so-called "corrective" shoes, "Archgrips" are gracefully proportioned and built upon natural symmetrical lines.

If you are suffering from any foot trouble through ill-fitting shoes or shoes of faulty construction, "Archgrips" will give you quick and certain relief. Ask us about the special features of these scientifically-built shoes, moderately priced from $9.00.

WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

C. N. R. steamer Prince John, Cat. Edward Mabbs, arrived in port at midnight last night from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands on a regularly scheduled voyage and will sail tonight at 10 o'clock on her return south over the same route. The vessel brought in a full list of passengers.

The Signal, Capt. Paddy Ivarson, is the last of the local halibut boats to report following the closing of the fishing season almost two weeks ago and something should be heard from her soon. It is evident that she has encountered some delay. It is thought she may now be fishing black cod to bring in in addition to what halibut she may have. There were no halibut boats in today and few, if any, more are expected.

Having come north with the fisheries patrol boat Bonilla, which has been tied up at Digby Island for the winter, I. Urseth and G. Christensen of Bella Coola sailed by the Prince George last night on their return down the coast.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, is due in port at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

The Indian Department's power cruiser Naskeena, with Dominion Constable A. J. Watkinson and Provincial Constable Victor Bond on board, returned to port last night after spending another two days on unsuccessful search for Joseph Rush, Greenville Indian, who is believed to have lost his life recently by falling overboard from the gasboat Mocking Bird during a storm near Quinemass.

MADE IN CANADA.

A. R. Mallory of Port Clements is paying a brief business visit to the city. He arrived from the Islands on the Prince John last night and will return home on the same vessel tonight.

Indian Agent James Gillett of the Queen Charlotte Islands is paying a brief visit to the city on official duties. Accompanied by Mrs. Gillett, he arrived last night from the Islands on the Prince John aboard which they will return to Massett tonight.

E. S. Richardson and George Leary of Tlell, who have been paying a brief visit to the city, are sailing by the Prince John tonight on their return to the Queen Charlotte Islands.
