BOWLING TOURNAMENT IN FAR NORTH

Alaskan Towns Leading Dawson and Whitehorse in the Bowling League

Tonight will witness the final of the international tournament which started on February 11th, the contesting teams being those of Juneau, Skagway, Dawson and Whitehorse.

Readers of the Star have probably noticed that the Whitehorse team has been bringing up the rear in the tourney, but they will also notice that the team outplayed Dawson last Friday night and both Dawson and Juneau Tuesday night of the present week.

Now, while there is no doubt that the local aggregation could outplay the Skagway team to-night and win the tournament—if there were a few more games to play instead of one, we have advised them not to do it, but to permit the Skagway team to win, providing Juneau does not gain on that aggregation tonight the 42 pins which now separate them, in which event Skagway and Juneau will tie for first place.

Table with 2 columns: Team and Pins. Includes entries like 'Skagway... 17,389', 'Juneau... 17,347', 'Dawson... 16,553', 'Whitehorse... 16,435'.
