ACTORS AS COMMUNISTS

"How Red is Hollywood?" Question Being Asked at Movie Capital

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 23:—"How Red is Hollywood?" continues to be discussed today as screen stars' names have been mentioned in connection with Communist activities. An astounded motion picture colony greeted the introduction of the names of such stars as James Cagney, Dolores Del Rio and Ramon Novarro into an investigation of communistic activities in California.

With the same incredulity Wall Street would greet reports that J. P. Morgan had given financial aid to the Red cause and Andrew Mellon had hoisted the Hammer and Sickle banner of the Soviet over his mansion in Pittsburg.

The stars have denied affiliation with the Red cause, explaining they had merely made donations to what they thought charitable causes.

VETERANS HONORED

H. M. S. Danae Entertains Members Of Local Canadian Legion

At the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, club last evening members of the local branch were the guests of the H. M. S. Danae at a most enjoyable smoker with Chief Boatswain Mate Cook in the chair.

A feature of the program was the presentation to the branch by Captain Knox-Little of a plaque of the Danae. In making the presentation Captain Knox-Little spoke of the appreciation he, his officers and ship's company felt for the hospitality of the Legion. To them so far from home it was like a touch of the homeland. They would leave Prince Rupert with happiest memories. A presentation of a plaque from the Legion was then made by J. S. Wilson who spoke of the rare pleasure afforded the branch in having the opportunity of meeting and entertaining the visitors. The visit was a red letter event, bringing a breath of the old land to all, renewing their pride in the Navy and its splendid personnel. They left behind them a record in keeping with the highest traditions of the "silent service."

At the head table were also Commander Clanchy R.N., Lieutenant-Commander Goodenough R.N., Lieutenant Whitford R.N., Captain Martini R.M., J H. Preece and C. L. Youngman.

The program, splendidly supported by a three-piece orchestra from the ship consisting of Bandmaster McLean, A.L.C.M., Musician Gobbie and Musician McNab, included songs by Sgt. Major Morse, C. P. O. Holding, who also gave an interesting item with the bones, P. O. Flemming, Telegraphist Jones, J. A. Teng, Robert James, A. S. Holder, A. B. Stephens, Dave Houston; cello numbers by Musician McNab and a club swinging exhibition by Chief Boatswain Mate Cook assisted by C. P. O. Holding, and monologues by A. B. Dunn, Jack Dougherty with sketches by A. B. Ashplant Accompanists were Mrs J. S. Black, Bandmaster McLean and S. C. Thomson.

The plaque from the ship represents the ship's crest, the tower of Danae of Greek mythology. The plaque from the branch was the coat of arms of Prince Rupert very neatly colored

Mrs. H. G. Kennedy and son, Scott, who have been visiting for the past six weeks in Prince George, returned to the city from the interior on Monday afternoon's train.

H.M.S. DANAE OFF TODAY

British Cruiser Left This Morning For South—Capt. Knox-Little Expresses Appreciation

Concluding her six-day visit to this port, H. M. S. Danae of the West Indies squadron of the Royal Navy left here this morning for the south. Early in the morning, the cruiser moved away from her berth off headquarters of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve and anchored in the harbor waiting for the fog to lift. At 9:15 she moved out to the entrance of the harbor but backed in again and lay at anchor off Digby Island until nearly 11 o'clock when she finally pulled out of the harbor.

The Danae is due in Vancouver on August 29 and, on the way from here, will make brief calls at Alert Bay and Nanaimo.

Just before leaving, Capt. C. H. Knox-Little, commanding officer of the Danae, delivered the following message to City Commissioner W. J. Alder:

"Before leaving I wish to thank you very much indeed for the kindness and hospitality we have received from the people of Prince Rupert.

"Both my officers and men have enjoyed this visit immensely and fully appreciate all that has been done for their entertainment and amusement."

Mrs. Robert Bartlett was the winner of the bologna weight guessing contest at Frizzell's Market. She guessed 48 lbs. 3 oz. and the correct weight was 48 lbs. 2 oz. Eight others guessed 48 lbs. There were about 500 guesses in all and F. N. Good and J. J. Payne did the weighing.
