ROME IS SUBJECT

Mrs. W. C. Wilson OF Victoria Interesting Speaker Before Women's Canadian Club Yesterday

"Rambles Around Rome" was the subject for an informal, conversational, yet very interesting, talk by Mrs. W. G. Wilson of Victoria before the Women's Canadian Club in the city council chamber yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Wilson, who is a splendid speaker, started from the Forum and took her listeners on a verbal tour about the ancient city, describing many points of historical, architectural, religious and artistic interest including works of art in the Vatican, the Sistine Chapel the roof of which had been painted by Michael Angelo, the Forum by moonlight, the Coliseum and its excavations, the Arena where the gladiators had battled of old, the Catacombs and the Appian Way.

Mrs. Wilson, who was regional president of the Women's Canadian Club last year, announced that it was the intention of the organization to send a sepeaker to the local club every month.

There was a good attendance at yesterday's meeting with Mrs. A. E. Parlow, the president, in the chair. A vote f thanks was tendered Mrs. Wilson on motion of Mrs. D. McD. Hunter seconded by Mrs. Fred McLeod.

Mrs. Wilson, who is on her way to Toronto on United Church business, a rrived in the city by steamer yesterday from Victoria and proceeded East last evening by train.
