= THE COSY CORNER =

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Ordinary white chalk such as is used in the school room for blackboard work is invaluable as a household remedy for removing spots from white clothes and shoes.

o o o

Wine stains on table linen are removed by sprinkling them with salt, moistening with hot water and then pour boiling water through the stain until it disappears.

o o o

As a garniture to the commonplace scrambled eggs, half a dozen mushrooms, cut into bits and cooked in a teaspoonful of butter with half a green pepper, minced fine.

o o o

Green, blue, lavender, aniline reds, purple and pink should be soaked in alum water—two ounces to a tub. Black, gray and dark blue should soak in strong salted water.

o o o

When egg yolks are unbroken they can be kept some little time. Drop them carefully into a cup and slowly pour water on them until they are a little more than covered.

o o o

To polish stoves use boiled linseed oil on the steel parts, rubbing well with a woolen cloth. Clean nickel with whiting and ammonia, and use good stove polish for the top.

o o o

If you have had the misfortune to burn a kettle, it may be made smooth and clean by filling it with ashes and water, leaving it for an hour or so then washing with clear water.

o o o

When the pie is ready for the oven pour cold water over it and drain; put at once into a hot oven and it will bake a rich brown glossy surface and the crust will be much flakier.

DATE BREAD

Quite a Delicious Food for Many Meals

The ingredients for one loaf of date bread are one cup of scalded and cooled milk, half a cake of compressed yeast (at night) stirred through one-fourth cup of scalded and cooled milk, half a teaspoonful of salt, one fourth cupful of molasses or sugar, one cupful of cleaned dates chopped rather coarse, two cups of entire wheat flour and white flour to make a dough that may be kneaded. Put all the ingredients into a bowl, using at first two cupfuls of white flour then mix with a knife, adding such extra flour as is needed. When light shape into a double loaf and when again light bake one hour.

HATPIN PERIL

Heavy Fines Inflicted on the Wearers in Berlin

Berlin, Aug. 21.—Dangerously protruding hatpins are under the ban of the chief of police here. The police department has announced that a fine of as much as $225 or two years' imprisonment may be inflicted for injuring any person with a hatpin. The victim is entitled to financial compensation in any amount under $1,500, proportioned to the extent of his injuries. Milder penalties were imposed against the hatpin wearers some time ago, but they proved inefficient, and the police have determined on more stringent measures.

New colors were presented to the Second Battalion Royal Dublin Fusiliers at Aldershot by Field Marshal the Duke of Connaught. The ceremony took place on the Queen's Parade and was witnessed by a large gathering of past and present members of the regiment and a number of distinguished officers.

GOWNS AND OMENS

Odd Superstitions that Darken the Dressmaker's Shop

"Women who wear fine dresses are as superstitious as the girls who make them," said a dressmaker. "If the little accidents that happen in the workroom were not mercifully concealed from the owners of rich gowns they would be sick with apprehension half the time. I had one customer who refused to accept a very expensive dress because a girl who assisted with the fitting dropped a pair of scissors, which fell point down and stuck in the floor. That meant an order for mourning within six months. The customer hoped that by refusing the hoodoo dress she could avert the calamity, but the precaution was useless. In less than three months her father was dead.

"Girls are especially particular in their work on wedding dresses, for if a tiny drop of blood from a pricked finger should fall on the gown the bride would surely die before the end of the year. Then there is a green thread. Whether the customer is there to see it or not no dressmaker will keep green thread near spools of another color. Green thread used for basting means the return of a dress for alterations, and there is enough trouble of that kind in a dressmaking establishment without deliberately bidding for it.

"Women who are themselves superstitious are never surprised or offended at a sewing girl's untidy coiffure. The girls tumble their hair about on purpose when working on a large order, for it is a sacred belief among dressmakers that a hair inadvertently worked into the garment shows that more work is coming soon from the same customer."—New York Sun.

MOSQUITO MARVEL

Try the New Way of Ridding Your Presence of the Pests.

Greensburg, N. Y., Aug. 21.—George P. Fox, city assessor here has found a new method of getting rid of mosquitoes. Before he retires Fox blows up a toy balloon and places it on the pillow. The mosquitoes, taking it for a human head, bore in. The balloon explodes and such of the insects as are not killed in the explosion hasten to find less dangerous prey.

Summer Girdles

Girdles are more in evidence than belts.

Those of satin and moire are extremely popular.

Many are finished with a buckle covered with the material.

Often a flat bow is placed under the buckle.

The pump bow is seen on many summer gowns.

When it first appeared the pump bow was worn only at the back; now, however, it is often seen worn just below the bust line in the center front.

Two scarf ends on girdles are very much in vogue.

The ends are finished in various ways. Some have bead tassels, others fringe, and many are embroidered.

The geisha sash with the obi set high between the shoulders is worn, but the style is not a becoming one, as it is apt to give the wearer a round shouldered look.

Sashes of tulle and chiffon will be seen on summer frocks as much as if not more than those of stain or velvet.

Girdles of imitation precious stones are handsome, but they require a nice judgment as to the frocks they may be worn with.

Canon C. E. Brooke, vicar of St. John's Vassall Road, Kennington, since 1881, and one of the best known clergymen in South London, died last Sunday morning.

ITEMS OF .. SPORT

George Macdonald, manager of Matt Wells, the English lightweight champion, announced that he had matched Wells to meet Knockout Brown, the New York lightweight, on August 30, in New York. Macdonald said the men had agreed to meet at 133 pounds, weighing in at 4 p.m. and that Charley White had been selected as referee. It is expected, Macdonald said, that Wolgast will make a match with the winner of the bout.

o o o

The articles of agreement for the boat race for the championship of America, between Jack Hackett and Eddie Durnan, has been received duly signed by the former and seem to meet the demands of the Toronto sculler. The conditions call for a race of three miles with turn on the Rainy River, on Thursday, September 7. The referee, who is to be mutually agreed upon, is to name the starter. The race is for $1000 a side.

o o o

Al Kaufman, the California heavyweight who is going to Australia to fight Bill Lang, will appear in Vancouver and give an exhibition before he sails. Kaufman sails from Vancouver for Australia on September 6, two days after the show there and Mr. McIntyre wired Billy Delaney, the Californian's manager asking him for terms for a four-round bout there. If Kaufman is secured it is very probable that the show will be staged at the Horse Show building in order to accommodate the crowd, as the clubhouse would be too small.

o o o

F. C. Thompson, theological student in Princeton seminary, won the all around amateur athletic championship of the United States on Marshall Field last week, duplicating his performance of a year ago when he was an undergraduate in Occidental College. He scored a total of 6,709 points against a field of eight other contestants, J. W. Donohue, Los Angeles Athletic Club, and E. Schhobinger, Chicago Athletic Association, being his most dangerous contesters. Thompson won first place in the sixteen-pound shot put, 880 yard walk and 56 pound shot put and tied for first place in the running high jump. He won second place in the 220 yard hurdle and running broad jump and finished third in the mile run. He also broke the all around amateur championship record for the 880 yard walk.

o o o

So Tom Longboat is his own manager? Well, under those conditions it is a cinch that the public will give the lean redskin another chance. He has been fussing around long enough, but for the past six weeks he has been on his good behavior, so it is a cinch that the separation from Manager Sol Mintz did not come like a thundercloud. As a matter of fact, the Indian has been claiming that he was his own manager for two months, but he found that no one would dicker up for a race unless he would put up a gurantee to appear and run or have his contract also signed by Mintz. This, together with a proposed European tour which Mintz could not take in, made an agreement necessarym so the Indian and Mintz got together and Longboat purchased his release for $500. Longboat originally signed with Tom Flanagan, agter six months' experience sold the contract to P. T. Powers for $1,500, and Pat Powers, after four months, sold it to Mintz for a thousand. Longboat has been training faithfully for over a month now and declares that his first race must be a winning one. He and Shrubb have met seven times and the Englishman has won five times, every time at ten or twelve miles. At the longer distances the Indian's stamina has always prevailed. Shrubb is right just now and says he can do 1.03.30 for the five miles. If he does he should just about win.
