TRAIN IS DERAILED

Tie-Up on Line of Canadian National West of Prince George Is Cause of Delay

Owing to a derailment one mile west of Nichol, twenty-nine miles west of Prince George, the train, due to arrive here at 10:15 tonight from the east, is from fifteen to twenty hours late so will not be in until tomorrow afternoon. In the derailment the engine and five or six freight cars left the track. No one was injured and, as far as can be learned, there was no serious damage to equipment although it is expected the engine will require repairs. By 6 o'clock this afternoon, it is expected the line will be cleared up.

The train, which left here for the east last evening, will be also delayed for several hours by the tie-up.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stamford, who have been on a trip to Ottawa, returned to the city on the Princess Norah yesterday.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Bert Ebden, popular chief steward of the steamer Catala, at the conclusion of the present voyage, will leave the ship at Vancouver for a month's vacation which he will spend making a motor tour to California, accompanied by his wife. Fred Goodey will relieve as chief steward on the Catala during his absence.

Capt. and Mrs. Chris Henricksen will leave tomorrow on the local halibut boat Gibson for Seattle. They expect to be away until the first of the year.

Outbound from Prince Rupert to Muroran, Japan, the Ocean Shipping Co.'s freighter City of Vancouver, which left here two weeks ago yesterday with a cargo of aspen logs for China, at 8 o'clock last evening reported her position by wireless as 2073 miles from Prince Rupert. It is about 3500 miles from here to Muroran and it is expected the City of Vancouver will arrive there in abou ten days. Heavy weather has been recently impeding her progress on the trans-Pacific voyage.

Capt. J. R. Elfert, harbor master, has received instructions to re-open the winter school of navigation, which has proven so popular in past years, on November 1.

NO HALIBUT SALE

The only boat in with halibut today is the Margaret I, Capt. George Fritz, which is holding over until tomorrow with 10,000 pounds of halibut and 6,000 pounds of black cod. The Teeny Milly, Capt. George Cook; Takla, Capt. Chris Parkvold, and Cape Beale, Capt. Edgar Arnott, are the only local vessels still out following the recent closing of the season.

Plan for Better Control of Colds Proved by Tests

Windsor, Ont.—A Plan for better Control of Colds has been developed by the makers of Vicks VapoRub—the modern external treatment for colds. The Plan is introduced along with Vicks Va-tro-nol for nose and throat, the new aid in preventing colds. Together with a few simple health rules, these two preparations form Vicks Plan for better Control of Colds. In clinical tests, the Plan has helped to reduce greatly the number and duration of colds. Full details of the Plan are in each Vicks package.
