THE MARKETING ACT

Editor, Daily News:—

In view of the prevailing controversy in regard to the respective powers of the federal and provincial parliaments which has arisen out of the passage of the Marketing Act and the Unemployment Act and the proposals of Mr. Bennett to pass other legislation, implementing the promises made in his broadcasting program last January, a decision by the Court of Appeal of the Province of Saskatchewan in the case of Rex vs. Zaslavsky, handed down on April 21, will be of general interest.

This case was a prosecution for a violation of the Dominion Livestock and Livestock Products Act. The accused was charged with purchasing three cases of ungraded eggs contrary to the provisions of the Act. The decision of the Court was rendered by Chief Justice Haultain, formerly Conservative Premier of the Northwest Terirtories and later leader of the Conservative Opposition in Saskatchewan. The Court held that, insofar as the Act purported to control and regulate the sale and purchase of eggs with in a province, the Act was ultra vires.

The Marketing Act, which was passed in 1934 by the Dominion Parliament, embodies the provisions of the Livestock Act and the Chief Justice largely bases his decision in the above case on the point taken by Mr. LaPointe during the debate on the Marketing Act, viz. that the Act was simply an attempt to give jurisdiction to the Dominion Parliament indirectly which it does not possess.

If Mr. LaPointe's constitutional objections to the Unemployment Act are as well taken as they were in this case, the country may regret that the government did not adopt his suggestion and have the Act referred to the Supreme Court for a decision on its constitutionality.

"TROUBLED WITH CONSTIPATION* FOR PAST 25 YEARS"

Then ALL-BRAN Brought Welcome Relief

Read this voluntary letter from Mr. Lecour: "I have been troubled with constipation* for the past 25 years. I tried practically every cathartic without results.

"Recently, I determined to give Kellogg's ALL-BRAN a fair trial. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has not only helped me, but I believe it is an actual relief for chronic constipation."—Mr. Henry E. Lecour. Address upon request.

Due to insufficient "bulk" in meals.*

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. It also furnishes vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle—and safe for normal individuals. Often more effective than "bulk" in fruits and vegetables, as it does not break down within the body.

Isn't this natural food pleasanter than patent medicines? Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

GREAT PLAY IS OFFERED

"Lives of a Bengal Lancer," At Capitol, Outstanding Screen Production

Featuring Gary Cooper, Franchot Tone, Richard Cromwell and Sir Guy Standing in the principal roles, "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," a stirring, colorful and action-crammed story of the exploits and adventures of England's colonial soldiers in India, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The story tells how the extraordinary bravery, discipline and skill of a mere handful of English soldiers enables them to hold sway over the teeming millions of India. Cooper is a captain of the Bengal Lancers, commanded by Sir Guy Standing, when Sir Guy's son, played by Richard Cromwell, arrives as a raw recruit. Cooper and Tone, also an officer of the regiment, take over the training of the lad who becomes involved with a beautiful girl and is kidnapped by a hostile native leader who hopes that the father will follow him and thus lead the Lancers to disaster. Cooper and Tone are caught when they attempt to free Cromwell who, under torture, discloses the whereabouts of a tremendous cargo of ammunition. Capturing the ammunition, the native leader prepares to lead a revolution against the British. The situation is saved and the annihilation of the Lancers averted by a daring single-handed manoeuvre by Cooper.

Heading the supporting cast are Monte Blue, Douglas Dumbrille, Kathleen Burke and C. Aubrey Smith. More than four thousand persons are included in the cast.
