WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

H. M. S. Danae, which visited Prince Rupert last year in the course of a coast cruise, will be in British Columbia waters again this summer. Word has been received privately in Prince Rupert that she will call at this port. This has yet, however, to be officially confirmed, the usual notice of the visit having not so far been received.

Frank Waterhouse freighter Southholm, Capt. R. B. Bennett, was in port a few days ago from Vancouver with general cargo. During the stay of the vessel here, it was necessary for a member of the crew to receive medical treatment, his head having been injured when a truck fell out of a sling and struck him as he was working in the hold in connection with the discharging of cargo.

The name of the grain steamer which is reported due in Prince Rupetr on May 18 to load a full cargo for the United Kingdom or Continent has not yet been announced. Additional grain required to fill this vessel is expected to be here by the first of next week, about 65 cars being due to arrive between tonight and Monday. This morning there were five cars in the yards which had not yet been unloaded at the elevator.

Bringing north another large list of Alaska and Yukon people going in for the season, C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 12:15 this morning from Vancouver and sailed a couple of hours later for Skagway and other Alaska points whence she is scheduled to call here next Tuesday afternoon southbound.

The Ketchikan motorship Beloit II, Capt. Knaplund, was in port on Wednesday morning with one carload of fresh halibut for transshipment east over Canadian National Railways.

No boats being in with catches, there was no sale of halibut on the local fish exchange yesterday.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, is due in port at 6 o'clock this evening from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Having completed her annual overhaul at the local dry dock, C. N. R. steamer Prince George was at the Imperial Oil Co. dock this morning taking on fuel and this afternoon is going out for trial run and compass adjusting. The vessel will sail tomorrow for Vancouver where she will be commissioned in service for the summer next month. Capt. Edward Mabbs is in command.

BAXTER IN FINE FILM

"Broadway Bill" Week-End Feature Offering on Capitol Theatre Screen

A screen romance which is said to be delightfully human and appealing comes to the Capitol Theatre screen this week-end in "Broadway Bill" starring Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy.

The story is that of Dan Brooks (Baxter), who is a nomad at heart but, by circumstance, the son-in-law of J. L. Higgins (Walter Connolly), who controls everyone and everything in Higginsville. Although he is married to one of Higgins' three daughters and is general manager of the Higgins' paper box factory which assures a rosy future, Dan doesn't care for business. He, instead, likes horses and freedom and finally kicks over the traces. The developments which follow are filled with drama, pathos and comedy. One of the thrilling sequences is a horse race.

Baxter and Miss Loy make an excellent romantic team. Other fine performances are turned in by Connolly as the father and Helen Vinson as the selfish wife.

CAPITOL TONIGHT AND SATURDAY

Easily . . . The finest story of the race-track flashed on the screen . . . combines drama, romance, lively comedy and the grandest and gamest race horse named "Broadway Bill" . . Don't miss it!

HELEN VINSON
WALTER CONNOLLY
Frank Capra directed it — a picture that will take its place alongside his other great hits — "IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT" and "LADY FOR A DAY"

ADDED
Thelma Todd and Patsy Kelly in "Treasure Blues"
Mickey Mouse in "Two Gun Mickey"

Feature at 7:28 & 9:38
