SPECTACLE ON SCREEN

"The Crusades" is Dramatic Story Of Immortal Love

"The Crusades," DeMille screen spectacle, which comes this midweek to the Capitol Theatre, is a far-flung drama and at the same time, a tender and intimate love story.

In "The Crusades" it was a time of violent human feelings, of lusty human action, of strong loves, hates and beliefs. Two civilizations were opposed: the Oriental empire of Islam, ruled by a despot, Saladin; and the western Christian world. The shrine of Christianity, the Holy Land, was in the hands of infidels.

Henry Wilcoxon has the role of Richard the Lion-Heart, young, burly, handsome, reckless king, whose tremendous vitality and courage were the driving force of the armies of Christianity.

Loretta Young plays the bride Berengaria, a young girl of eager spirit who changes into a woman of intense spiritual power and insight under the influence of a great love.

Others are Ian Keith as Saladin, Sultan of Islam; C. Aubrey Smith, as the Hermit, and DeMille's own daughter, Katherine DeMille, as Princess Alice of France.

There will be a special matinee Thursday afternoon in addition to the regular evening shows.

FISHERMEN'S ATTITUDE TO SKEENA SALMON FISHING

Editor, Daily News:—

According to a report of a meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, published in the Daily News of the 8th. instant, it was stated by G. W. Nickerson: "That the Japanese had asked for an extension on cohoes, and it had been granted them. What the white fishermen asked had been turned down."

Whether the above statement was made through ignorance, or with the intention of giving uninformed persons the impression that the Fishery Department had a favored nation clause in their regulations, which applies to Japanese fishermen, we do not know.

I am sure Mr. Nickerson should know that, if the commercial fishing boundary on the Skeena River is moved, either up or down, it will apply to all commercial fishermen in that area. Further I think if he will take the trouble to inquire at the local fishery office, he will find that there are more Japanese fishing spring salmon, than whites.

At a mass meeting of salmon fishermen, sponsored by the Northern B. C. Fishermen's Association, and the Skeena Fishermen's Association held January 6, 1936, in Prince Rupert, with Japanese and white fishermen from Port Essington and other river points present, one of the resolutions passed unanimously opposed the moving down of the present boundary on the Skeena. And that was the only request concerning the moving of the boundary sent to the Fishery Department by either the Northern B. C. Fishermen's Association or the Skeena Fishermen's Association.

We are of the opinion that the fishery committee of the Chamber of Commerce are more concerned in their own self-interest than in helping out the white fishermen by asking for an extension of the spring salmon fishing grounds.

As to Mr. Pullen being approached by resident fishermen: We are all resident fishermen, and want equal rights for all, and special privileges for none.

J. ROBERTS, Secretary,
Northern B. C. Fishermen's Ass'n.
