WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Work For Aircraft is Lining Up—First Tourist Boat in This Morning—Prince Charles to Vancouver.

After having carried out a job of freighting in mining supplies from Burroughs Bay in Behm Canal back of Ketchikan into the Unuk River country, Pilot Bill Holland of Vancouver with his Stinson monoplane returned to Prince Rupert at 9:30 Saturday night from the north. Pilot Holland came north last week from Vancouver to carry out this job for Pilot Charlie Elliott whose Junkers seaplane has been held down here for the past week awaiting the arrival of parts from Winnipeg following an engine breakdown. These parts arrived yesterday, enabling the Junkers to get back into the air and the Stinson to take up other work. Early this week Pilot Elliott has some freighting of mining supplies to carry out from Stewart after which he will proceed to the interior to carry out some freighting work from Fort St. James into the Omineca mining area. Elliot is hopping off for Stewart this afternoon.

First Alaska tourist boat of the season, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, was in port from 8 to 10 o'clock this morning northbound from Vancouver to Skagway with a passenger list of 175 persons consisting largely of round trippers. The Princess Louise, which has a heavy freight cargo for Skagway, will be back again Saturday afternoon southbound. Four passengers disembarked from the Princess Louise here while sixteen went north aboard her.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 8 o'clock last evening from the south and sailed at 9:30 for Port Simpson, Stewart, Anyox and other northern points whence she will return here Tuesday southbound.

George Kidd, prominent Vancouver business man, and Mrs. Kidd are expected in Prince Rupert before long in the course of a cruise aboard their power yacht Meander. They will be going north as far as Alaska.

C. N. R. steamer Prince Charles, which came off the pontoons at the local dry dock last week after undergoing annual overhaul, moved down to the Canadian National wharf on Saturday and will sail tonight for Vancouver. At the end of the month the Prince Charles will go on the run between Vancouver and Prince Rupert via the Queen Charlotte Islands in place of the Prince John which will go tramp freighting for the summer. Capt. Dan McKinnon has taken command of the Prince Charles and Capt. James Watt is now master of the Prince John. The Prince Charles will take up a couple of carloads of halibut from here to Vancouver for transshipment east.

Pursers on steamers of the Canadian National Steamships fleet this summer will be as follows: Prince Robert, A. H. Robson; Prince Rupert, Arnold Evans; Prince George, F. H. Coram; Prince Charles, Joseph Barrowclough; Prince John, N. A. McLean.

Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Daly returned last night from a week-end angling trip to Bill's Lake, Warke Canal. The party consisted of C. V. Evitt, W. O. Fulton, F. A. MacCallum, S. E. Parker, Hubert Ward and W. P. Armour. It had good success and the members brought home well filled creels.

Orme Stuert and Jimmy Forman sailed in their newly acquired Columbia River fishing boats from Sunnyside cannery yesterday. They made from Sunnyside to Barrett Rock in an hour's time but got becalmed at the entrance of the harbor and had to be towed in the rest of the way. Hugo Kraupner also went out to get a boat but did not get rigged up in time and will bring the craft in later as will F. A. MacCallum who did not have an opportunity to go out and get his yesterday.

Whole Pure Milk

One of the reasons Pacific is such good milk, doing so much for babies and grown-ups, is because it is extra rich and when it reaches the table it is whole and pure. A perfect milk, before canning, vacuum packing keeps it in its original prime condition.

AL JOLSON AND MUSIC

Al Jolson's latest musical extravaganza, "The Singing Kid," and the farce thriller, "Florida Special," with Jack Oakie and Sally Ellers, comprise a double bill program being presented at the Capitol Theatre at the first of this week.

"The Singing Kid" is a human interest drama which swings intermittently between rollicking comedy and heart-wrenching pathos. There are two elaborate specialty numbers and many catchy new songs. Jolson appears in the role of a great Broadway entertainer whose fiancee elopes with his chiselling manager. Then Al's voice goes back on him and at a summer camp he meets a beautiful girl with playwright aspirations. A surprise denouement brings an amazing climax. Beverly Roberts, Broadway star, Claire Dodd, little Sybil Jason, Edward Everett Horton, Allen Jenkins and Lyle Talbot are among important members of the cast.

"Florida Special" consists of a series of thrilling, mystifying and uproarious situations aboard a speeding train on which are en eccentric millionaire with a valuable box of jewels, his crooked secretary, not too straight niece, docile secretary, enterprising reporter and jaded playboy. The supporting cast of Oakie and Miss Eilers includes Claude Gillingwater, J. Farrell MacDonald, Frances Drake and Sidney Blackmer.

Boys' Band Heard From New Point

The Prince Rupert Boys' Band, under Bandmaster Robert Greenfield, gave an open air concert Saturday night from the new stand on the city police garden hillside overlooking Fulton Street. There were many people on the streets in view of the beautiful weather and the music was much enjoyed. The new stand was found too small to accommodate all the boys but it is understood it may be enlarged.
