THE MACDONALDS RETURNED

It seems rather a pity that both Ramsay MacDonald and his son Malcolm should have had to be given "safe" seats in order to secure for them places in the British Government. Both were defeated in the general election.

Ramsay MacDonald is looked upon in Britain as a traitor by the people whose support he formerly received and with doubt by the new group that has adopted him. Between these two antagonistic groups he came a flop at election time. The son was defeated for the same reason.

Both father and son are able men, good speakers, and well qualified for the positions they occupy. They were not defeated because of their lack of ability but because nobody felt quite sure where they stood. It speaks well for Prime Minister Baldwin that he stood by his newly-found friends and secured seats for them.

DID CANADA SAVE EUROPE FROM WAR?

The Prime Minister suggests that the action of Canada in withdrawing support from its delegate at Geneva saved Europe from war. This may be or it may not. We are inclined to think the Prime Minister is mistaken, but he may have information not available to the rest of us. At any rate the League of Nations has not yet recovered from the weak-kneed policy of Britain, France and Canada. No league can ever hope to become effective if its members do not stick together.

Admitted that a large section of the Canadian people objected to the attitude of Dr. Riddell, and these were not the French speaking people of Quebec. According to all the information available it was from Ontario that the strongest protests came and not from the labor interests there. There was another strong element in the country that objected to the withdrawal of Dr. Riddell, and Prime Minister Mackenzie King found himself between two strong fires. His attitude seems to have been justified by the later weak peace proposal of Sir Samuel Hoare and Premier Laval which was dropped under protest from the world and particularly from the British people. But many good supporters of the present Liberal Government will feel that the Prime Minister did not play the part of the strong leader when he capitulated to the first protest. And yet he may have been right.

SKIDEGATE MEMORIAL SERVICE

Editor, Daily News:—

Will you kindly publish this in an early edition of your paper. Many of your loyal subscribers and readers of the News were very disappointed and others were very angry when they read the account of the above service of which G. H. Jolliffe was chairman.

Whoever wrote that report certainly wrote before the event and they owe A. R. Mallory an apology, as well as the ones who attended the service. A. R. Mallory was invited but could not come.

I had a part in preparing the program and know the actual facts. Chief Councillor Matthew Williams invited the speakers and it was a gross discourtesy to them that their names were omitted and, in their names were omitted.

Chief Councillor Matthew Williams and myself wish to thank, first our guest speakers, our choir and the local band for their splendid services. Special mention, perhaps, should be made of Arthur Moodie and the band. Mr Moodie certainly led the band in a way creditable to all. This service was the suggestion of the band members. Secondly, we thank all others who took part.

Signed on behalf of those interested,

REV. BISHOP BLACK,
Pastor of United Church.

(A second report contained the names of certain persons not mentioned in the first.—Ed.)

STILL ANOTHER

Editor, Daily News:—

Regarding the recent report of the Memorial Service held at Skidegate Mission Community Hall on January 28, allow me as Chief Councillor, and as one who was partly responsible for the program to protest vigorously against the report which appeared in your paper on Friday, January 31.

Allow me to say that two of our guest speakers, also our local minister, were not mentioned, and as these took a prominent part in the service it is a discourtesy we wish to correct.

We did invite Mr. Mallory to give a short address, but, previously to the meeting early Tuesday morning, he informed us that he had another engagement of a similar nature.

On the Saturday before the meeting we had already invited Doctor Charter, and Gordon H. Jolliffe and the Rev. Bishop Black to give addresses at this meeting.

Fortunately for us, each of these were present, and took part in the service, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

M. J. WILLIAMS,
Chief Councillor,
Skidegate Mission.

Man in the Moon

Good afternoon. Look out for the icicles!

There are not very many old people in the north but at Prince George there is said to be a person so old she knew the dipper when it was nothing but a drinking cup.

The maid quit because she said the master of the house insulted her over the telephone, mistaking her for his wife.

You may have heard of the man who sent his wife away for a vacation. He said he needed it badly.

Lawyer: "Then you admit that you struck the plaintiff with malice aforethought?"

Defendent, indignantly: "You can't mix me up like that. I've told you twice I hit him with a brick and on purpose. There wasn't no malletts nor nothing of the kind about it—just a plain brick like any gentleman would use."

I am not sure which butcher it was in Prince Rupert who is said to have been asked if he had some good pork. "Good pork", was his reply. "I've got some pork that will make better chicken salad than any veal you can buy."

Irate father: "I can see right through that chorus girl's intrigue."

Lovesick son: "I know, dad, but they all dress that way nowadays."

SEA HAWKS TAKE LEAD

Half a Game Now Separates Each Club in Northwestern Hockey League

CALGARY, Feb. 13: (CP)—Seattle Sea Hawks scored a decisive 4 to 1 victory over Calgary Tigers in the Northwestern Hockey League last night and, as a result, moved into the leadership with a half game margin over the Portland Buckaroos. One point or half a game now separates each club in the league from the next, the race being one of the tightest in years.

The league standing to date:

	W.	D.	L.	F.	A.	P.
Seattle	14	4	12	71	67	32
Portland	12	7	9	62	47	31

Edmonton	12	5	13	78	76	29
Calgary	12	4	14	84	89	28

Box Cleverly Says Loughran

American Expert Advises English Folk on Ring Game

LONDON, Feb. 13: (AP)—British boxers, says Tommy Loughran, the American expert, need more science and less sensationalism. "Forget the knockout," he told British sports writers, when asked why boxing on this side of the Atlantic "was inferior to the American standard."

"Tell your men to box cleverly. Then England will take her place as a producer of men able to box well enough to beat any class of fighters."

Canadian Legion Regular Meeting

Two Delegates Going to Dominion Convention—Employment Of Ex-Service Men

With President Jack Preece in the chair the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League was held last evening in the clubrooms.

Applications for regular membership from R. H. Fuller and C. H. Taylor were approved as was the transfer of C. Peterson from Anyox.

The thanks of the branch was voted the committee that took charge of the city billiard championship last season and the name of Jack Judge was added to the committee to consider the running of a city championship this year. Regular reports from the various sub-committees showed that all sections were carrying on successfully and the branch ranks very high among the branches of the province.

To attend the Dominion convention which will be held in Vancouver beginning March 23 two delegates, President Jack Preece and the secretary-treasurer, J. S. Wilson, were appointed to represent the branch. Mr. Wilson will also attend a special meeting of the British Columbia provincial executive prior to the Dominion convention.

The matter of employment of ex-service men in casual jobs about the city was again considered. It is hoped that where possible citizens who require occasional help will communicate with the branch which will supply labor if available. A list of unemployed ex-service men is kept in the club.

The branch will co-operate with the Women's Auxiliary in the bridge and dance to be held the last week of this month.

Playgrounds to Be First Concern Of Gyro Club Again

The Prince Rupert Gyro Club, at a business luncheon yesterday when club activities for the year were the principal subject of discussion, decided to have a survey made of the playground situation with particular reference to necessary repairs and improvements. While the club will, as usual, probably concentrate on playground activities during the year, certain other activities have been proposed but action with respect to them was deferred yesterday.

It was decided to send Past President S. J. Jabour as a delegate to the district convention to be held in Seattle next summer.
