Pattullo Outlines Ambitious Twenty-Six Point Program Of Objectives For Legislature

"Beehive of Industry with Economic and Social Security For All"—Alaska Highway Construction, Enlargment of Province, Peace River Transportation Among Plans

VICTORIA, Nov. 25: (CP)—Premier T. D. Pattullo last night outlined for the Legislature a twenty-six point program of government objectives designed to make the province a "beehive of industry and development with economic and social security from the Forty-Ninth Parallel to the northern boundary and from Alberta to the Pacific Ocean with our people happy and prosperous."

Among the objectives which the Premier listed were the bringing about of construction of a highway through the province to the Yukon and the establishment of highway connection between United States and Alaska; the extension of British Columbia's boundaries "not only to take in the Yukon but also territory east of the Yukon following the 120th Meridian to the North Pole which would add 400,000 square miles to the provinces 365,000;" the establishment of transportation facilities with the Peace River and northern British Columbia at the soonest possible date; the linking up of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway with Canada's two national railway systems; co-operation with the Dominion to the end that all unemployable and temporarily unemployed able to work may be able to sustain themselves in reasonable comfort and insurance that British Columbia is on a basis of parity with other provinces of the Dominion in Confederation.

Other objectives include the improvement of the financial position of the municipalities, the establishment of a better understanding between employers and employees, improvement of labor conditions and the improvement through legislation and administration of "health conditions of our people."

The Premier's extension and development program includes some projects which will figure in the Rowell Commission submissions shortly. Widening of British Columbia's boundaries has been under consideration for sometime and it will come before the commission as will the province's status as a member of Confederation, improved municipal financial positions and the subject of Empire preferences.

HANDS ARE KEPT FREE

No Commitments Were Made By Halifax to Hitler, it is Announced

LONDON, Nov. 25: (CP) — Viscount Halifax, Lord President of the Council, made no commitments to Chancellor Adolf Hitler during his recent visit to Germany. Nor will any commitments to Germany be made without the House of Commons having full opportunity to discuss them

This in brief, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain sketched in the House of Commons today the result of the Berlin conversations.

The Prime Minister dismissed press speculations as to what occurred between Halifax and Hitler as "not only irresponsible but highly inaccurate."
