Mr. Manning is well qualified for the position, as he began his musical education at the age of six in his hometown of Woodstock, Ont. His father, a wellknown band trainer and leader, taught him the alto horn first, and by the age of 15, Mr. Manning had mastered the saxo-. phone too and was playing pro-'fessionally in a dance band.

He attended Wayne State University in Detroit, Mich., and obtained his Bachelor of Science degree in musical education there.
